CV19 Vax Deadliest Fraud in History – Edward Dowd

Wall Street money manager Edward Dowd has made billions of dollars for companies such as Black Rock picking good businesses with good products. He can also spot a fraud, and Dowd says Pfizer simply made up the research that said it's CV19 vaccine was safe and effective. According to Dowd, it was neither safe or effective. Dowd says, "The data was garbage. As far as I am concerned, they made up the data. It was garbage." Dowd thinks the CV19 injections will be the deadliest fraud in history. Dowd explains, "This is something we have never seen in the history of our country and the history of the world for that matter. We have a product (CV19 Vax) that is so fraudulent and so deadly from an acute basis and kills you right away, but the long-term implications of this health impact we don't know yet. It's looking grim. This is going to be with us for decades. This is going to change the face of the world. We have to try to control the outcome because people are going to try to take advantage of this and spin it and turn it into the 'great reset.' We are not going to allow the 'great reset' to happen. If it happens, it's going to happen under our power, and we are going to take control and not some nameless elites that say I am going to own nothing and eat bugs."

Some people say the perpetrators of the deadly vax fraud are going to get away with it. Dowd says not a chance and explains, "The problem with this fraud is it is a bridge too far. 220 million Americans took the vax (at least one shot). Three million Americans are disabled, and it's probably higher, and those disabilities are going to continue to grow. The economic impact, the young working age men and women dying in their families and the psychological effects show this is not your run of the mill financial fraud. This is a different kind of fraud, and this is a trust issue. It violated trust on so many levels that the politicians are going to turn on these people at some point. . . . These things don't end until the elite pay a personal price, and that's where we are headed. Some of these people are going to pay a very personal price. I don't wish that on them, and this is why they need to come forward and start whistleblowing so they can be protected in jails. These crimes are so difficult to hide that there will be that kind of action. If you look at the story of Marie Antoinette and the saying "Let them eat cake," the French Revolution did not end well for the elites. The consciousness is rising in this country at an alarming fast rate. . . ."

How does Dowd know we have passed an inflection point? Dowd says, "In October, November and December of last year, people all over the media, celebrities and people I knew were saying the unvaccinated are the problem and they need to be put in camps. Well, that chatter has disappeared. They have not apologized for that, but doubts are starting to enter people's minds. . . . It's like the stages of grief. The first one is denial, then anger, then depression and then acceptance. We are in the denial/anger stage. We are still in the denial part, but we are quickly approaching anger."

In the economy and what's coming, Dowd points out, "What's going on is we are basically at the end of the super bubble. . . . We are going to have to have a new economic system . . . and what's going on is the collapse of that. The defaults are coming, and they are going to start in other countries first and make their way here. . . .It's going to be a disaster, and we are going to see a huge amount of defaults, bankruptcies and collapse of the economy. . . .99.9% of the world does not know the social contract has been broken. What does that mean? It means all the entitlements, social

Is it true many “Ramon Mercader”s, with very ressourceful, mainly foreign organizatons, were deployed to take out the plotters and “the 1% of the 1%”, if not (yet!) all of “the 1%”?

If true, in order to avoid them being captured and info about their handlers being leaked, better put them in high security prisons.

Great interview as was the previous one with Dr Ryan Cole. The only thing I would question is when Ed Dowd says that everything goes down in a crises because everything is bought on leverage. Whilst I agree, how does this apply to gold? Does anybody really buy gold on leverage or in other words borrow money to buy gold? Surely they buy gold shorts using leverage in which case the shorts would disappear. Could be totally wrong. Would be interested in peoples' thoughts.

Hello Sir Mantelope,
Concerning one aspect of your question about HARD MONEY (Gold & Silver) history teaches us that they ride the wave of hyperinflation very well in maintaining their purchasing power. From the Weimar Republic era that offers evidence of historical written accounts documented in a book called WHEN MONEY DIES to other countries of more recent history around the globe such as Zimbabwe of several years ago and Venezuela currently, Hard Money is recognized & respected for what it is and is used as it has been for thousands of years.

I believe the point Mr. Dowd was making on that is only initially there may very well be a drop in everything. Seems to me that Gambling on that may just end up being a fools errand if one doesn't time it right...

The entire interview is beyond riveting. I've heard heard the name Ed Dowd before but never heard him speak. He is 100% right on the money. It's going to end in pitchforks and torches for the elite. It is something Martin Armstrong eluded too as well. History has shown us this always ends badly for the Elite. I was thinking of the French Revolution before Ed mentioned it. The Plebs got fed up and stormed the castle so to speak.

Spend your cash. The dollar will be so weak it will not be wanted in trade. Silver will be preferable. Your dollar today is already buying less so get rid of them. You should already have your supplies for survival using the last 5 or 10 years to get everything and built community. Having some gold is not the advice imo have enough gold to transact buying lower priced property in the restart. This guys advise is measured so prefer Pento, Schiff and High vision.

You obviously like to throw the baby out with the bath water. Okay, so we have established he's not Eric King from King World News. He didn't say don't hold gold. He is essentially saying the same thing as Martin Armstrong. When things collapse the commoner won't know what the value of the gold you are trading for. What he was saying which is what Armstrong has repeatedly said is that when things get really wonky, trading in a currency the kid across the street understands is money that was used prior to the collapse. I personally agree with that. It will have temporary value until a new form of money is created.

First, they went to the state prison-armory (Bastille St. Antoine) for gunpowder. We Americans don't have to do that. What we have to do is USE the ammunition we have. Up to this point, I see no evidence anyone is prepared to do that. Best always. PM

The "ammo" we should use is to "Revoke the Security Clearances" of all the members of Congress who are essentially "working for foreign entities" (like the WEF, WHO, UN and CCP, etc.) – we can't have members of Congress working for two or more masters – their obligation and duty is to the American people only – and if they are not going to work for us – and abide by our Constitution – "They Are Essentially Traitors" – and should be denied access to the House and Senate by American Patriots in law enforcement (or by Citizen arrests) to prevent them from passing Legislation "to help promote a foreign entities agenda" – or to take it upon themselves "to amend the Second Amendment of Constitution of the United States of America (just because some psycho shot some teachers and children) why are these "Representatives" not passing legislation "to outlaw scalpels"? (to prevent millions more children from being hacked up with scalpels by psycho doctors who then sell the children's body parts to Big Pharma to use in their vaccines and to help flavor our food)??

Spot on Rodster ! The only way that the elite will temporarily escape would be the Rapture of the Church. If this should occur, their judgment will be curtailed for 7 years, after which they will wish that they had been judged by man and not God.

We totally agree, Dr. Ryan Cole was probably one of the more fluid experts, with his down-to-earth explanations the entire covid fraud, AND, now you go back-to-back with Ed Dowd, who has the same way of explaining complex medical and financial issues (problems would be a better word) so that all can comprehend.

Thank you Greg, you are a scholar and a patriot, and as a 4th Degree Knight of Columbus, I recently introduced your, "Jesus is Real" theme into our Assembly with total acceptance.

Hi Robert,

I've spent years in R&D in electromagnetic compliance on light-based medical monitors. I've stayed on top of the discoveries of graphene oxide etc. in the shots, and La Quinta Columna has done amazing work on what appears to be self-assembling nano-particles. It seems to me that the Bluetooth signature in injected people stems from the same tech that makes people magnetic...though they will never tell us what is in there. The initial research I've found started with making 10 micron ferritin nano-particles pass through the blood/brain barrier, but then they moved onto graphene oxide... which is the same material you find in CB car antennas. At that size, graphene particles resonate in the microwave range...whether they are in the bloodstream or not. So people are responding with a Bluetooth ID due to two possible factors...either they are already IN a microwave field and they are resonating, OR, since the human body uses bio-chemical electrical signaling, body tissues themselves may be sufficient to cause the graphene to transmit. The actual data content of the signal is open to interpretation...Bluetooth apps may see the signals as an ID, but other apps (including 5G) may interpret them differently. I'm guessing that this material has been injected to make it easier to track (and command) people through their smart phones.

Just reading the summary of this interview makes me SO interested in what this man is saying. I think he is right—they will not get away with it when people start dying all over the place. But, people are going to have to fight because of famine. I believe that the whole country will go into chaos though, when the powers that be shut down the electricity across the U.S. People are going to have to start living in a totally different way that they aren't used to. If people don't have any food stored away, they will be in big trouble. Some people in this country live in a dream world. They just don't see what we are talking about and they don't care to know. They just want to care about worldly things—not being a responsible citizen. So, boy will they have to wake up fast if this crisis comes upon us quickly. And, like Alex Newman says, desperate people do desperate things. The Deep State might shut things down more quickly than we imagine them to. But, I sure hope that people have enough GUSTO in this country to fight for their rights and say to themselves—NO, THEY WON'T GET AWAY WITH THAT!

What we need is a Unanimous Declaration (from all 340 million American people) – To Declare to the evil Globalists that we will "no longer put up with their BS" –

It has now become necessary – in the middle of the current human extermination events (like the "Jab" and the promotion of a "Nuclear War) – that We the People of the United States dissolve both the Demonratic and Republican Political Parties (which have essentially connected together "as one" to assume the power of life and death over the American people – and in total violation of God's Genetic Laws of Nature) –

We the People of the United States of America are thus impelled to do this – As We Hold These Truths to be Self-evident – that All men are Endowed by their Creator with certain Unalienable (DNA) Rights to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness and when any Political Party becomes destructive of these ends – it is the Right of the People to Alter – or to Abolish it – and to institute “New Representatives of the People” who will effect their Safety and Happiness – all our recent experience with the “Jab” (like people dropping to the ground dead) – and the other perverted evils these Demonrats and Republicans have colluded together for us to suffer like the purposeful shooting of our children in school (to do away with our right to own guns) – or teaching our children to become queers (to foster the extermination of our species) – along with a series of other abuses that has reduced our Representatives to a bunch of “Bribe Taking Despotic “Commie” Nazi Warmongers” –

Therefore – it is Our Right – and Our Duty – to throw off these two(2) evil Political Parties – and provide “new” Guardians for our future security – our present bunch of “lifetime” Representatives have done many injurious things to We the People (like the “jab”) – but especially their perverted sanctioning to allow queers to turn our children “into new queers” – their evil aim is to establish the worst possible absolute Tyranny over the American people – and the Facts with respect to the Kill Shots and the Tampering with the lives of our children speaks for itself – our Representatives have repeatedly refused to do what is necessary for the public good – they have failed to pass Laws of pressing importance (to protect the American people from a truly evil Gang of Big Pharma “murderers”) – failed to protect us against another evil Cabal of Globalist “eugenicists” – and failed to protect against an evil bunch of Queers “coming after our children” – instead – they have become Tyrants and Traitors (causing “others just like them to be elected” – by manipulating votes) – and have exposed our Nation to the danger of invasion – by allowing unsecured borders – threatening other Nations with a nuclear first strike – and causing National convulsions by threatening or murdering our Supreme Court Justices and others – our disgusting Representatives have assumed “lifetime tenure in office” – have sent swarms of FBI Officers to harass Patriotic people (who dared protest on Jan 6 by holding up an American Flag) – and in times of peace have tried to render (with their FBI snipers) superior power to our Constitutional Laws – they have now combined with foreign entities at the WEF, WHO and the UN to subject We the People of the United States “to Foreign Jurisdiction” in direct violation of our Constitution – hence Overruling the Laws of Our Nation and “giving their Assent to the Takeover of Our Republic” (which by any definition is Treason) – they have also imposed Economic Sanctions and cut off our Trade with other Nations around the world – they have imposed Inflation Taxes upon the people (by allowing the Fed to double the money supply in one year) – Without our Consent – they have deprived many Jan 6 Patriots the benefits of “Trial by Jury” (for their own manipulated false flag break into the Capital) – they continually “Do Nothing to Stop” the altering of our Fundamental Rights to Free Speech and to Bear Arms –

Therefore – We the People in Search of a Better Union – Suspend the two Political Parties in control of our Legislative bodies – as they have “Abdicated their Duties” – and are in fact “Waging War Against Us”! – like blowing up and plundered our food processing capability and shutting down agriculture, egg and meat production (to create famine), burning down our towns and cities by de-funding the Police (to create chaos) – and destroyed the lives of countless people with their Warp Speed “jab” mandates (to murder us) – while at the same time are allowing and transporting large Armies of Foreign Emigrants to cross into our border (and no doubt are planting them in strategic locations do nefarious deeds in the future) – our Representatives have become “The Executioners of our Families” and friends (with their “jab”) and have Mercilessly allowed queers to “Come after our Children – For All These Oppression's and more –

We the People of the United States of America – to form a more Perfect Union – seek Redress from the two(2) evil Political Parties (clearly found to be Unfit to Rule in Our Place as a Free People) – they have been “deaf to the many voices” Looking for Justice against the likes of Bill Gates, Fauci, Schwab, Horrori, etc., etc. – and therefore out of necessity –

We the People of the United States of America declare the Demonratic and Republican Parties “illegal entities” (that need to be totally dissolved and decimated in every State of the Union this coming election “by voting in all newcomers” and eliminating all the old ingrained bribed and “lifetime

freeloaders" (working for foreign entities) – and in support of this Declaration

We the People of the United States of America also mutually pledge our sacred Honor to Protect and Defend our Children "from all Enemies foreign and domestic" that are now coming after them" (at all costs) – and we rely upon the One True Almighty and Divine God in Heaven to Protect Us in this Undertaking "To Free America From Evil"!!

The USA is over, we have no representation; every agency is corrupt and compromised. Millions of foreigners have been admitted and forced on communities creating chaos and crime, while perversion and lawlessness has been normalized. Voting won't fix anything esp since McConnell and over 170 rinos in congress now. Churches remain silent muzzled by the 501c3 and their hierarchies/nat. assoc. Economy is now decimated and reset planned then people will line up for aid and willingly go into enternment centers. Nihilism and apathy in most people. Enslavement and genocide will procede using UN troops and military. America is not mentioned in the Bible, get it? Hello?

devil, and thst God simply wanted me to open my eyes to him, and stop worrying about what I cannot change.

I do want America to survive, thrive, and prosper, and all that I can really do is be a man of God and lead by the truth, and by example. but I am afraid you are right, our enemies have really done a number on the younger generations, ultimately they are nihilists who put their faith in govt instead of God, or science instead of God, The problem with science is that it always changes, over time, the theories always change, and its too politically driven and agenda based, it cant possibly provide an ethical foundation as religion does for society. There is no love, no heroism, no faith, no compassion, or human qualities in the machine of the science world, it denies anything that isnt materialistic or identifiable with a particle counter

Is there a love particle? Nope

This only ends with global dictatorship, which is what the enemy wants. If people put faith in govt, when govt fails, where do they turn without God? They will burn, loot, murder, cause chaos, until a powerful dictatorship rises and puts them all to subjugation ie global dictatorship.

I think Albert Pike letter to Manzini talked about how ww3 would use the nihilists against the populations against the world, and then using the dissatisfaction with christianity people will abandon their christian forms of govt and adopt a new system thst is guided by lucifer

I see that the CDC has recommended that masks be worn again because of Monkey Pox. But then doctors and scientists pointed out that Monkey Pox is not an airborne virus. The CDC deleted their recommendation. Oops!

I also read that most of the victims of Monkey Pox are males engaging in homosexual behavior.

Today I was at the local grocery store. 50% of the people were wearing masks, especially the elderly.

From the above data, I can only conclude that they were wearing masks to prevent the insertion of a penis in their mouths.

I see no other reason to wear a mask as they cause harm from rebreathing exhaust gases and pathogens.

Now when I see someone wearing a mask, I laugh at the thought of oral penis avoidance by the wearer of the mask.

EXACTLY! This is an exploding meme and it goes VIRAL: where I live many people do this imitation and go "BAAAAHHH" when they see people wearing masks. That happened the other day at the entrance to a supermarket: suddenly I found myself surrounded by a whole 'herd of sheep' all going "BAAHHH" because of some dumbwit telling his boy to put a mask on. We 'sheep' looked at each other and started laughing out loud. It made my day!

06/08/2022 • Reply

We're not quite there yet but certainly setting the stage. The government will make this mistake: Stagflation will bring on a recession, pretty damn quick, I think, especially if gas continues to go higher, creating what I call the "girdle effect", meaning you squeeze here and the bulge shows up somewhere else. Americans won't cut their gasoline consumption, so other areas of spending will suffer, and a recession ensues. Then, in an attempt to save their rotten, government asses, they start "printing" again with the "helicopter" money (stimmie checks, debt-payment moratoria and all the rest), adding to the excess money in circulation. That's when we go "Weimar" , and it's every man for himself. The consolation is that the government that inflates to that degree does not survive, and we need desperately for this government to go. Best always. PM

Thanks Mr Hunter and Mr Dowd , love the gulag or bust comment!

The stats,here in he UK, of those available are full of holes at best and exhibit a pattern of fraud at worst. The fraud is not accidental rather it holds a pattern which itself has changed since the inception of this phage and experimental laboratory work. Friends I was at university and worked with in clinical trials,mysteriously lost their jobs in February 2018 as their analysis of many phase III trial medicines were "inconvenient" all seven of them at different companies got the boot with the same letter. How strange!

Back to our economy here which is just a tragedy in action.Inflation is horrendous and credit lines are being pulled and housing is on a tear,tradesmen are as rare as hen's teeth.

The revolution that is coming is gathering huge amounts of kindle for the conflagration that will erupt, our "justice" system is so compromised I just can't see the legal system being allowed to function as the corruption is so deep, as witnessed by the Prince Andrew affair, that I fear the justice handed out here will be in the Mussolini era type.

I work as a cleaner ,my scientific work had to take a back stage as there just was no money in my field, in quite nice houses and buildings in nice areas here in London,UK. Some of these houses are empty and the resident help are helped by us to do a deep shine clean almost weekly.Many of these houses have had the same postcard sent to them depicting the "Mussolini necktie",the resident staff have been just filing these for the house manager/boss to return.When some are reported to the authorities they seem unfazed as this has been happening all across the home counties and the wealthier parts of London. As this is purely anecdotal I can only assume anger is at boiling point.

Use your own cotton swab if forced to test. Get the test kit at the pharmacy and get reimbursed for the cost from your employer if forced to test. This way you will avoid the graphene oxide and/or sodium oxide on the tip of the kit supplied swab. Follow the directions of the kit. It works just fine with your own swab. If more controls come back and you have to test at an airport or border bring some medical packaged swabs from medical supply store. They are packaged in twos and box of 100 for $6 to pass around. You do not want the toxins going up into your brain and not repeatedly. Just say you have the right to use a safer swab.

Apparently, they became friends after Dr. Malone went to his home where Edward shared Hi Greg and thanks for a great interview with Edward Dowd. Love everything he has to say about the Covid 'vaccine' fraud!

I am not troubled by ED's prediction of a 'temporary' fall in the price of gold when the shtf in stocks. When people witness the upcoming stock and bond crash, the consequent wipeout of the pension funds, and the concurrent exponential increase in the cost of necessities, many will rush to sell whatever they can to survive. Due to the zombie economy, many large company stocks and corporate bonds are valueless and will be unsalable – while gold will always (5,000 years of human history) find a buyer. Edward Dowd is a player in the big league – ex BlackRock! – and when he says 'cash is best' during a period of acknowledged 8% – but actually nearer to 20% (John Williams) – consumer price inflation, I can only assume he has access to a super-secure yield-bearing cash fund. For us ordinary folk, holding cash is currently a guaranteed loss-making proposition. Cash – even the mighty US dollar (Federal Reserve Note) buys less and less real stuff by the day!! Gas, not too long ago at $2 / gal – now at $5 / gal most places, and reportedly $10 / gal in CA!! Sure, the US$ is rising against other unbacked fiat currencies but so what? Every fiat currency is currently in free-fall when compared to real stuff. Also, if as ED predicts, the 'faceless elites' lose and 'we the people' win – then the shackles holding the price of PMs in check will be broken . . .

Good points Persona NonGrata, but I just wanted to add also that during the next financial crisis, even if you may have cash inside of the banks, your accounts might not be accessible, or only in small amounts, so the choice probably becomes to hold a bit of physical cash and a quantity of physical precious metals, other strategic hard assets, food, water, and a means of securing these things.

Edward brings up a point to hold a lot of cash inside banks to buy some bargains after the crash, but this may not be possible.

We all know that precious metal prices are manipulated, so the more depressed their prices become, even better to add to your position, but eventually, and not far from now, it may become even cheaper, but totally physically unavailable at the same time.

Over 500 currencies have come and gone since the middle ages, so the U.S dollar may eventually become the last currency standing, but with that might mean even worse horrendous inflation as all the trillions of dollars abroad start to come home.

Ironically, the elites want us all to come running to them to install a universal digital currency when this happens, to put us all into digital concentration camps, but they may just find people running after them with pitch forks.

I am hopeful that the Lord can save the best of humanity, and purge the rest of it.

Tim,

Like radiation – the effects of let's say, a good alpha particle emitter gets lodged in your lungs: it could take up to ten years before the cancer begins. The time span between acquiring the particle and the onset of cancer is the deceptive part. Many who get the 'vaccine' – will not show symptoms for a long time. Time then tends to disassociate the cause from the disease.

"Congress plans televised hearings on the Capitol attack but voters have forgotten. 🙄

They've been rewarding election deniers," says outlet.

Polls show voters much more focused on record-high inflation, rising gas prices and high crime.

Bloomberg News opined that voters aren't interested in the January 6 Capitol protests as Democrats prepare to shift focus onto televised hearings meant to demonize former President Trump and his supporters ahead of the midterm elections.

"Most bad government has grown out of too much government."

At my wife's workplace, almost all employees got vaxed and some have gotten boosters. Fast forward....they keep getting sick with COVID-19. My wife did not get vaxed and has not gotten sick once since the initial outbreak in early CY 2020. All of this is anecdotal, but it's hard to reconcile the risk/gain. The more significant question is whether the COVID-19 vaccine is actually making people more susceptible to variants. Standing by as this story unfolds.

This inflation is a MONITARY event. Our currency quantity has doubled in 2 years 2020 and 2021 and is set to increase another 50% this year. Cutting oil supply by executive order just makes so much worse. Dollar is strong is because all other currencies are printing more than the US. It's all about money supply and goods AVAILABLE! If the Fed pulls out the cash then prices will go down and reach another equilibrium and a recession. Much greater poverty for us Serfs. It's all about control and the plan is on schedule.

Greg, Dollar going UP?
<https://www.unz.com/mwhitney/the-war-in-ukraine-marks-the-end-of-the-american-century/>

" Here's your 'reserve currency' thought for the day: Every US dollar is a check written on an account that is overdrawn by 30 trillion dollars.

It's true. The "full faith and credit" of the US Treasury is largely a myth held together by an institutional framework that rests on a foundation of pure sand. In fact, the USD is not worth the paper it is printed on; it is an IOU flailing in an ocean of red ink. The only thing keeping the USD from vanishing into the ether, is the trust of credulous people who continue to accept it as legal tender."

Thank you Greg for an excellent guest and interview. I have been following Ed Dowd since he first came on the scene. I am a retired Board Certified anesthesiologist so I have a lot of time to study this scam. I realized it was a hoax from March 2020. Like Ed, I was stunned at people rushing to take the shots including some former colleagues. A 1st cousin, 58 yo, died 2 days after the booster in Sept. 2021 and just found out a former heliski friend, a DDS, died last month from an intracerebral bleed. He took all the shots since he went to Canada to ski this year. He won't be skiing now at 6 ft under. Meryl Nass, MD, states 28% of the US is up to date on the shots. More are waking up finally. On Del Bigtree, a pediatrician was quoted as stating that some of his pts. parents are calling him a shill for the CDC since he recommends the childhood vaccines. These parents no longer want their kids to get ANY vaccine. Thanks for all you do exposing all the lies.

To have managed a fund size that grows from 2 billion to 7 billion over 10 years, is a notable track record. Better than Warren Buffet over the past 10 years.
To have managed that a large a fund and produced that consistent return over the past 10 years of extreme political fraud, and extremes of financial fraud proves Ed Dowd demonstrates an ability to see through the fog of political and financial.
Ed Dowd has clearly foreseen and profited from the true trends of the past 10 years. SO pay attention to his advice. Ignore his advice, at your own risk.
Greg, thank you so much for consistently providing us with the highest level of truth seeking individuals found anywhere on the internet.

That is as impressive as questionable.
I appreciate the frankness of Dowd and that he has seen the light. However, it should be clear to all, that 'investment' in this fictitious money paradigm (=perverted capitalism) means 'making money' on the shoulders of producing people, while screwing them through fiat creation out of thin air.
And that IS the conundrum, which even Dowd has difficulty to tackle when he tries to advise on what's best to hold to survive the coming maelstrom: it is the hard to comprehend plane of illusionary 'money' vs the physical plane of 'worth'. When that illusionary plane collapses as it WILL, EVERYTHING will find new evaluation as 'worth'.
And then, for once again, true labour will be 'worth' REAL money.

Thanks Greg for your clarification.
Given the earlier track record calculation, Dowd already stood on the podium for an Olympic medal for investment achievement. But, redoing the calculation using 2 billion to 14 billion, that produces an average yearly return of set

70%!!

Given that traders always have some losers, and some winners, then there had to be many years when the returns were even higher – just to average 70%.

The long term persistence of this performance points to the stellar quality of Dowd's analysis.

Bottom line. Ed Dowd stands out as one of the top 1% of all time top traders.

Pay attention to what Dowd is saying and it is likely you will emerge a winner over the long term.

Go directly, against his analysis and you may be surprised at the downside of your future.

Could you get Ed Dowd on as a more regular guest?

Thank you Greg, interesting and unique viewpoints. Edward is the first financial analyst that I have heard saying to hold on to cash and he gives less weight to precious metals. I was stunned when he explained how the dollar will continue to rise in value in the world market before it crashes. I don't understand the financial arena — won't the new currency for the U.S. need to be backed by gold and silver? Won't this make their value rise?? In summary — I agree with Edwards recommendation to have a balanced portfolio.

Hi Mary,

This is very confusing stuff, because it involves many dynamics and many players, take for example the BIS, the IMF, and the World bank, as one aspect, then you have the Fed reserve, bank of england, bank of canada, etc. representing another aspect, then you have the top buldge bracket investments banks, such as Jp morgan chase, Bank of America, Goldman Sachs, UBS, Deutsche bank, credit suisse, citigroup, etc.

Its very deep and complex. For years people though the world bank and IMF were working together to put nations on their sdrs, special drawing rights, which was designed to put these growing economies on loans by the imf that they would never pay back, then when they defaulted, they would trade this for more control over say an industry, and this would continue, they would get these nations on their sdrs. Then people said that they would collapse the dollar and use these. new sdrs, and the UN world bank etc would all agree to this and so on...Also the BIS is basically the central bank for all central banks. So when BIS makes claims about Cbds, thino of that as your corporate boss in your region answering to the multinational boss of all corp regions, but this is for central banks.

But as time went on the dollar looked like it was going under, and people thought this was all about China, and making China the top dog, abd started promoting these other theories, BS imo, that Somehow china is behind all of this and not the rockefellers and rothschilds of europe who had been planning and talking about this for decades.

So it a red herring, you have to figure out who is on what side, what agenda are they selling etc.

Its the most complicated topic out there.

Id recommend looking up Silent Weapons for Silent Wars, and learn about how economic manipulation is down to a science, comparable to electromagnetic theory.

You can model an economy as a circuit model, using test signals ie inflationary or deflationary triggers, interest rate manipulation, etc you can send small signals into a circuit and model the propagation throughout, its basic circuit element theory but modeling say an inductor as a process of money creation and so on. This is where Aladdan and Blackrock come into play.

Remember how Martin A talks about his AI modeling? Well take his AI and think much bigger. They have this for blackrock, and its basically been a test in theory, for the int banking mafia, I believe it was a test model, but turned out to be the real deal, and since has done nothing but grown in massive proportion to everything else, and its basically like a part of the Fed now, Catherine Austin fitts exposed that with the blackrock going direct reset plan the fed initiated.

Anyways, long story short, this guy says dollar will die UP, as in it will be the last man standing, as the rest go down one by one, the world js gonna be sent into hell. as this occurs, they will initiate the next part of the plan, destroy the american faith internally and externally. and then use this sequence to justify the need for a new reserve currency that is more balanced and not backed by a single "broken" nation like America. In fact that might even use us as the "bad" example to say "never again" allow one nation to be the reserve of most of the world..

Sorry to be so long, Its a very complicated issue. You could for ever about banking and economies.

I want to add, the whole thing should be clear as to why they want to bring america to its knees. This is all by design. We know that now right? I mean seems most of the alt media community is aware of this now. So we know its being done on purpose, we even know thier end goals..its a world wide socialist utopia ruled by them. where you dont have any assets, you are brainwashed to love it ala think HG Wells.

We know in order to reach the next stage their has to be a "sacrifice" these things always must occur for a proper transformation, rememeber these people are evil, they dabble in the craft and other occult practices, this isnt just a reset economically, its a reset of the mind of the individual, and of mankind itself, think Transhumanism

Also, I think either Putin is in on it, or they triggered this response on purpose, knowing how Putin would react, they wanted this, because europe must be put on a new plan, and to do that they must be harshly forced off their old ways ie think energy and climate change.

Same with America, but at a slower pace, they want to change our ways, remember its not just about money, its about changing you, your behavior, getting you to accept a system where you have no privacy, no assests, no say in anything other than what color icecream you want or what movie to watch, Its over, and whats occuring now is the mental programming to make the youth become the new leaders of tomorrow, the future where all of this utopian ideal will supposedly blossom, and then as marx claims the state can wither away and thee global leaders can go into the "background" and guide humanity to the stars and "be as the gods"...this is literally what they believe...some of them at least.

The other "half" of this evil is simply using this as a ploy to gain supremacy for their bloodlines, and they simply have hatred for all who are not like them. They are considered the mark of Cain. They don't believe in any commie utopia lol they simply want power and control over mankind.

It's just really a war against God's creation, and some of these elite know they serve Satan, while others simply are pawns in it all....well they are all pawns IMO

Another fine crime report on the status quo.

I like Edwards' method of investigation and grasping the urgency of the situation.

Greg, that these fraudsters are not behind bars and the gangsters like Fauci and others sent to the electric chair IS PROOF POSITIVE THAT JUSTICE DOES NOT EXIST IN AACRIME!!!

In the final analysis this is going to count heavily against the citizens of AACRIME when Our LORD JESUS returns as he already knows the extent of the culpability of the felons free ranging in AACRIME.

Before that all happens a MONSTROUS NATURAL EVENT the likes the Earth has never seen!!!

As for the reset a reminder that AACRIME nor any other country will be a party to that as they broke the system and are therefore incapable of fixing it.....Letting the Coyote decide what's for dinner when discussing the menu with a bunch of chickens is an exercise in absolute futility.

Have a blessed rest of the week and many thanks to you and Edward on a good exposure of all the deceit going on in your country will occur on American soil.

Outstanding Greg, one of the best sessions with Ed Dowd I have seen to date and I have seen darn near all of them, incl on War Room w/ Bannon, AJ, etc, etc. His voice/perspective is one of the most unique and valuable out there today, plus he frames it all in objective terms and real world context.

One of the best things he said, imho anyway, was "My goal has been to create a consciousness where we tip the scale of the marginal mind... and we convince enough people they've been poisoned". Also "This is a trust issue... they've violated the public's trust"

Greg, great interview, another grand slam. I will quote directly a study on Ivermectin that is on the National Institute of Health. Note; The study confirms that Ivermectin BINDS with the Spike Protein.

"In 2015, the Nobel Committee for Physiology or Medicine, in its only award for treatments of infectious diseases since six decades prior, honored the discovery of ivermectin (IVM), a multifaceted drug deployed against some of the world's most devastating tropical diseases. Since March 2020, when IVM was first used against a new global scourge, COVID-19, more than 20 randomized clinical trials (RCTs) have tracked such inpatient and outpatient treatments. Six of seven meta-analyses of IVM treatment RCTs reporting in 2021 found notable reductions in COVID-19 fatalities, with a mean 31% relative risk of mortality vs. controls. During mass IVM treatments in Peru, excess deaths fell by a mean of 74% over 30 days in its ten states with the most extensive treatments. Reductions in deaths correlated with the extent of IVM distributions in all 25 states with $p < 0.002$. Sharp reductions in morbidity using IVM were also observed in two animal models, of SARS-CoV-2 and a related betacoronavirus. The indicated biological mechanism of IVM, competitive binding with SARS-CoV-2 spike protein, is likely non-epitope specific, possibly yielding full efficacy against emerging viral mutant strains."

Yes, I guess I'm sarcastic about my own mortality, but what can I do ? I hope that the vaccines didn't doom me, but if I find out otherwise, it will be too late. I'm older than most here I suspect and I trusted the medical establishment not to harm the people. That's just the way my generation was brought up. There use to be a sense of duty. There also use to be a sense of trust. Now, maybe both are long gone. It would be a hell of a thing if we learn that this whole ordeal was a master plot to kill millions of people. My account above is simply what I know to be 100% true. I'll leave the theories and other conjecture to those who have the investigative skills and tools to tell us what has been afoot. One thing that does bother me though as a Trump supporter and that is why he supported rushing the vaccine. Trump always seemed like a bright man to me and not naive at all. If he got fooled by the medical establishment then who the hell am I ?

He was good at talking his game though.

Your humble response speaks a lot to your character and I am thankful to at least have what I call, a "friend on the other side of the fence" with respect to these vaccinations. We need more like you because I do think inevitably at some point that you will understand the truth in which case you would be a valuable advocate for more rational (and ethical) directions down the road.

I also apologize for the edginess of my reply earlier. It's just that I get so frustrated and angry about all this nonsense as even my own family participated. I am scared for them.

Excellent program, Greg! Thanks. Minor quibble – Marie Antoinette did NOT say "let them eat cake." (see The Guillotine and the Cross) But then the "French" Revolution was an opening salvo in the war on Western civilization.

"this world-wide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilisation and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development, of envious malevolence, and impossible equality, has been steadily growing. It played, as a modern writer, Mrs. Webster, has so ably shown, a definitely recognisable part in the tragedy of the French Revolution. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the Nineteenth Century; and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become practically the undisputed masters of that enormous empire" – Winston Churchill, Illustrated Sunday Herald, February 8, 1920, pg. 5

In the early 2000's, the Minutemen group was formed by Jim Gilchrist in Southern California. They consisted of volunteers who went to the border and assisted the Border Patrol. Very successful! They had hundreds of volunteers. Police officers, firemen, veterans and people from all walks of life. The Border Patrol loved them. However, the globalist Mainstream News Media proceeded to label them "racists, bigots, xenophobes, . . ." and succeeded in turning public opinion against them. There was also infighting within the group leadership in California and Arizona. Unfortunately a very successful, patriotic endeavor was destroyed.

I suggest going online and doing a search for Jim Gilchrist in California, and Glen Spencer in Arizona. Possibly they can help you connect with groups who continue to volunteer at the border to save America. Good luck!

The only way to stop the breach of trust on society is to publicly hang a few of the truly guilty perpetrators. It would only take a few. But it should not be done with Democrat style kangaroo trials. When there are thorough investigations and bullet proof evidence for each public prosecution, the problems will stop.

California Department of Health continues to promote the vaccines, as well as the locations to get them. They play ads all day long on local radio stations. It's all about power and control, and raking in huge amounts of money. No doubt Big Pharma is paying the State to keep this criminal enterprise going.

Last week, a high school in LA County refused to allow unvaxxed students from participating in the graduation ceremonies. Those "dangerous" students were instructed to go around to the back and pick up their diplomas. That is cruel! Had nothing to do with keeping students safe and healthy; it was about punishing anyone who refuses to get with the program. I hope the parents of those students hire some good attorneys and sue the L.A. school district.

Fortunately, parents throughout California are removing their children from public schools, and enrolling them in private schools, or doing home schooling. There are lots of non-profit, private groups forming to help parents who are not qualified to teach.

All your interviews are excellent but this one is at the top of a very short list of extraordinary interviews. It is overflowing with the kind of real information that is needed by everyone, and especially by those who have been injured by the vaccines or the financial consequences of the lock-down's and related policies. Well done to both you and your guest for bringing all this to light.

<https://www.bitchute.com/video/DMCbh0JhasOt/>

It says, no mRNA but the shots have graphene, which has been in many other products and food. I know – personally – months ago I found a steak that a magnet stuck to. I know I have had reactions around people who I – LATER – find out got the shot, and I'm not the only one. But I personally only know one person who had a reaction from their shot. Most of my family got the shots and boosters with no problems or illness. What have the rest of you all – PERSONALLY – observed, NOT heard???

Hi Greg, Thank you for another great interview.

The past two years have been totally crazy in South Africa. The "vaccine" roll out was filled with the usual stories of corruption involving the top Government Officials, even the then minister of health. President, Cyril Ramaphosa, said initially that the shots were voluntary and not to be forced on people. They made the shots available first to the elderly and then to younger people.

This being in line with the provisions of the South African Constitution, as follows:

(2) Everyone has the right to bodily and psychological integrity, which includes the right— (a) to make decisions concerning reproduction; (b) to security in and control over their body; and (c) not to be subjected to medical or scientific experiments without their informed consent.

But given a few months time the Government Officials saw that their 70% target was not being met within their set time frames. Then, to the surprise of many, the President shifted his position, by saying that the vax is "Safe and Effective" and encouraging people to take the vax.

People do talk and tell of stories of family members and friends who either died or gotten sick, some cannot work, after the shots. A local family doctor, Dr Rapiti, posted several videos on social media discussing the vax injuries he treated in his practice. Some heart breaking stories of people not covered in the mainstream media. If you saw the interviews of Dr Shankara Chetty he explained the situation well.

There is a lot of pressure on people to get the jab, but people are resisting and fighting this in our Courts, being the last line of defense.

What Clif High said confirms human nature, if people's loved ones and children are hurt or killed that will push people to their limits.

To illustrate this we saw this playing out locally when the community formed a mob and rounded up a perceived criminal (who allegedly tried to kidnap two girls) and beat and burned him. This happed in Parkwood, Cape Town, just a few days ago.

Guns are not needed for this level of violence and brutality from being unleashed.

Thanks, another great guest. I think Dr. Elizabeth Eads says the same that they won't be able to walk down the street. This is the sort of confidence we need to bring these crooks to justice. And more importantly put an end to their objectives, which I believe was to alter medicine to primarily treatments of vaccines instead of one on one relationships with your personal doctor.

That seems to be a general trend among the Davos crowd, to dilute the influence of credentialed professionals, most likely in an attempt to automate their profession. They did it to my profession, engineering, and now they are after the medical professionals.

I also found it valuable what he thinks about the dollar. Charles Hugh Smith says about the same thing, it will only get stronger as we work through a deflationary collapse to liquidate all

Big Pharma in conjunction with criminal entities inside the US government executed a CONSPIRACY to commit MURDER. This is GENOCIDE plain and simple. That alone eviscerates the immunity clause in Big Pharma's contracts. They will all declare bankruptcy and be replaced by other pharmaceutical manufacturers. Using Trumps first E.O. (which Biden just EXTENDED!) the Elites in charge of this conspiracy need to have their assets frozen and seized to pay reparations and damages along with repaying our citizens for the theft through illegal taxation. Our criminal government needs to be replaced. I believe Devolution is real and BIG CHANGE is coming. As a wise man said a few years back, "Nothing can stop what is coming. NOTHING." GREAT Interview!!!! I am wondering if the lack of workers in the work force that shows where people have just mysteriously have fallen out of the work force and there are 2 job openings for every one person is due to the premature die off or have become handicapped due to the vaccine? It makes ne wonder because this is to great of a divergence to explain it by calling the great job resignation. There is more to this than that. At this point, the question for me is no longer are they really doing this on purpose? It's just how long have they been doing this on purpose!!!!?? We know about Gates in Africa and India. Arthritis runs in my family. At least I thought it did! Once retired, I stopped getting annual flu shots. Haven't had a serious arthritis flare up since!! Is the flu shot the first to lower your immunity so any underlying potential chronic diseases of aging show up? The number of adults on a maintenance medication for chronic conditions is staggering. My theory is that's the money shot. Medicate for chronic conditions. Then medicate for side effects of the treatment. Get people on several medications. Then monthly appointments for med checks!! Practice Rentier Medicine. Make big money. Ever watch the commercials on the news broadcasts...all for medical treatments. I remember listening to the side effects warnings (many potentially deadly) and wondering who the heck would take that pill? Do you know any one going through this process? Any one suffering from Covid or with losses from Covid? And that folks, is how you " create consciousness and tip the scales of the marginal minds of people so the pressure points start to crack." Why do so many kids have autism since we've been giving infants 26 shots? Why are flu shots offered nearly Everywhere to make sure everyone can easily get one? THINK ABOUT IT!!

Popular Russian comedian pranksters Vladimir Kuznetsov (Vovan) and Alexey Stolyarov (Lexus) made headlines this week after they duped the former duffas, U.S. President George W. Bush into appearing on a Zoom meeting.

Coincidentally; Pitcher James Cooper Duffus, played in the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system in 1948 and 1949. For the Winston-Salem Cardinals in the former campaign, he went 6-5 with a 3.40 ERA in 13 games. In '49, he was 7-5 with a 4.08 mark in 24 games for the Allentown Cardinals. Overall, Duffus went 13-10 with a 3.78 ERA in 37 games.

While at Yale, he was teammates with President George H.W. Bush and pitched in the first two College World Series.

He also wrote a book, Thank You Baseball.

Also, a big problem with bringing these elites to justice is that the whole military and law enforcement community has been vaccinated.. The elites might bring in U.N. troops with their blue helmets. I dedicate this movie to all the forensic doctors who come to Greg's site and are caught in the dilemma of this atrocity we find ourselves in that they will speak out and declare truth with bravery around the world. Also, I have spoken negatively about the Chinese and wish to acknowledge that there are many citizens in China and citizens of the US that do not adhere or condone the policies of either of their governments. We must always remember that we who are of the faith are one around the world. I find it heartbreaking that there are so many people misrepresented and suffering/dying because of the evils the governance. At the end of the movie the doctors speak out about their profession, please listen. This movie displays the beauty and talent of the Chinese, I hope you can see beyond the religious and cultural differences and understand that God is above all my/our prejudices and absolutely just and beyond our comprehension of how things should be or how people should think and worship HIM. Only he can judge the heart and mind of a person. All those who are HIS will come to HIM. Not one will be lost.

As far as I'm concerned the perpetrators have already gotten away with it. Pfauci is still there, no pharma rep has been arrested, no politician besides a handful are questioning the vaccines. To this day no one in the msm, government or health care industry admits their vaccine is at best ineffective and at worst a depopulation shot. You have the braindead sheeple still walking around wearing masks, still getting jabbed. My imbecile brother in law who is a pediatrician just had his 3 kids, 9 and 11 year old (twins) double jabbed. Because he's smarter than the average guy right? He's a doctor he trusts vaccines he has to show us poor shlubs that he knows better.

And those poor kids, all jabbed now even though they had covid in September of 2021 and didn't need it. There is zero benefit for them and nothing but risk.

I've sent him your interviews and other independent news stories about the dangers of these shots. And his response : I'm a conspiracy theorist antivaxxer.

I just don't care anymore, I've done my job I've warned them.

Great interview with Edward Dowd. Just for the record. There can be NO Immunity for criminal acts. I do understand that these companies were given immunity from 'vaccine' injury. Once it's proven that these deaths and injuries are the result of criminal acts the origin immunity is null and void. No one can be given immunity from criminal acts. It's just that simple.

Unfortunately, the rule of law has been undermined at the very highest levels of government. Many of these big pharma people feel they are immune from the laws that pertain to others. And that may have been true, but as Edward Dowd says the intentional murder and maiming of millions of people is 'a bridge too far'.

This is what I got from my work email today:

On May 4, 2022, Governor Cooper issued Executive Order #257 – “Establishing an Incentive Program to Encourage State Employees to Receive Their COVID-19 Booster Shot”

UNC President Peter Hans has authorized each UNC institution to provide the COVID-19 booster shot incentive leave program for their SHRA and EHRA non-faculty staff, and for their faculty who earn leave... in accordance with the rules in the executive order and the corresponding Office of State Human Resources policy.

I thought Ed's comment about the dollar was interesting: "The dollar will fail up."

So, the dollar will get stronger and stronger...but clearly not against everything.

It will get stronger against other currencies...but not against the basket of goods we need to survive.

Inflation is off the charts, and everything we buy is more expensive. So, it appears he is saying relative strength in the dollar against other currencies will increase financial pressure on non-dollar economies leading to mass bankruptcies abroad and ultimate collapse of the world financial system...while here at home, our dollars buy less and less.

So, it certainly makes sense to hedge against the dollar's loss of buying power here in the U.S., and going to cash won't do that.

With 3M rise in disability claims, coupled with around 1M excess deaths , if 200M were vaxxed, that equates with the earliest EudraVigilance percentages from 2021, at about 1.5% serious vax injuries & .5% vax deaths.

Its the gift that keeps on taking!
Industry stats (mortuaries, insurance, etc.) are often from public companies with SEC watchdogs vetting their filings. So, it adds credence to both if their numbers independently confirm the EU's.
BTW, another great guest ,Greg.

Checkmate, game over. Watch the government's next economic move closely.

If the government hands out massive increases to entitlements; or a huge increase of the number of people getting checks; and/or huge handouts for all, it will fuel the hyper inflation to a Weimar. We are that close to the end. This time there are no more cans to kick.

Then listen for Biden giving last ditch dictator edicts, PRICE FREEZES AND CONTROLS while handing out trillions to the masses on a weekly basis, and ordering the national guard to guard the stores and armed guard the transportation of goods. Crime will be so bad that your police will quit.

Watch Biden confiscate food stuffs from farmers and finally anyone that has a pot to pee in. In just weeks the trucks could cease to transport due to fuel and wage costs. Stores closed due to bankruptcy. The greatest real estate crash of all time.

The government rushing out emergency checks on a weekly basis, valued at more than a full time worker earned just two years ago- on a weekly basis, to people that never worked a day in their lives.

Good thing MLB had drag queen night, you know those drag queens on display were booed and laughed at. I hear one park had 10,000+ fans, but only about 24 fans remained in the stands after the game was over to witness this madness against GOD.

Were all 'Uecked' and all that is left is WWII to cull the herd. Leave the cities and never return.

What should the government do? Raise interest rates to 20%, cut entitlements of all able working age people, cut government spending by 75%. Allow the GDP for fall as far as it can and allow the forces of supply and demand to rebuild the economy, this time money must be earned into existence, not just handed out to people that would rather beg than work for it.

And that doesn't even cover the morbid obesity medical costs that will exceed $1 trillion in 2024, and each and every year thereafter with built in 20-2,000% increases due to hyperinflation. The people ate the seed corn, and they borrowed and already ate the seed corn for all the crops for the next 10,000 years.

Greg, I just want to express sincere admiration for one of your best interviews ever. It's fascinating where the conversation can take you when you're not sticking tightly to a script. That was some very, very interesting and enlightening discussion. I hope you bring this guest back when the opportunity presents itself.

Great critical information. I think it a huge, huge mistake to allow evil into offices of power for any period of time. Those that fear exposure will turn to violence to silence all future criticism and warning. That is what Hitler, Stalin, Mao, and such of that evil nature did. Then that attack evolves into civil war with all that horrific loss. Remember what has been said and done recently by Obama and other puppet masters about controlling negative information in respect to presen govt. admin. actions etc.. The desperate do desperate things.

Ok this is what I see, and it's only one of about a hundred scenarios. There will be whistle blowers, but it will go nowhere. The media won't report it and only the government can file criminal charges. Only when money can be made by embracing the health catastrophe theme will the health catastrophe theme be recognized. That could be when people start getting money from injuries. Or possibly a law firm will sue the drug companies using their investigative trial fraud to get around the immunity. People will want the money. The question would be how much money can still be made, or is being made, using the safe and effective model. Karen Kingston said Covid is a trillion (I'd say billion) dollar industry now. It ain't goin' nowhere. PLUS, if 60% of the injected people lose their N antibody immunity, and say half of Americans got shots, that leaves about a third of people will get it over and over again, until they are all dead. IT AIN'T GOIN' NOWHERE.

I get that pensions will have a dramatic decline in value.

I understand that paying the existing pension holders will not be possible.

However, if jabbed pensioners all die, will the pensions be large enough to pay the survivors?
