History unfolded before our very eyes this afternoon as Pakistan’s very own “Trump” spoke exclusively to Revolver News about the Biden regime’s plot to oust him from power in an exclusive bombshell interview.

The great Imran Khan was generous enough to sit down with Darren J. Beattie and discuss how America and the deep state ousted him from Congress to keep a corrupt gravy train flowing.

Mr. Khan had this to say on Twitter before the interview:

Imran Khan
@ImranKhanPTI

In their feverish attempts to implicate me in any case just to get me disqualified and jailed, this current assortment of incompetent crooks have again shot themselves in the foot.

They have provided me with an opportunity to do a proper exposé of this whole Cypher drama.

Tomorrow I will share the uncensored details of how this conspiracy unfolded to overthrow a govt which had the best economic performance in the last 17 years and bring these money launderers and crooks into power who have run the country to the ground.

I assure you it will be more gripping than any drama on tv.

Mr. Khan, who is widely regarded as a man of the people, was dethroned in what he insists was a plot orchestrated by the U.S., much like the Deep State has enveloped President Trump in endless investigations and indictments in what could accurately be described as a “pre-emptive strike” coup. President Trump, of course, is another populist “man of the people” leader who the globalists despise.

Reuters:

Pakistan will open criminal proceedings against former prime minister Imran Khan on charges of exposing official secrets, Interior Minister Rana Sanaullah said on Wednesday, the latest in a string of cases the former premier has been facing.

The case is related to diplomatic correspondence between Washington and Islamabad, which Khan said early last year was part of a U.S. conspiracy to topple his government. Washington has denied being involved in any such conspiracy.

Truly, this man has quite a tale to tell, and we wish him the very best as he fights for his vision of a strong and great Pakistan where the powerful are subject to the law and the common man is empowered.

Imran IS in some way's Pakistan's Trump!

He and Trump are 2 of the only world leaders who were famous before entering politics:

Imran was a great, world-famous cricketer. He was the captain of the only Pakistan team ever to win the cricket World Cup.

You have to understand that cricket is the passionate, national sport in Pakistan, a nation of 240 million.

Also, Imran had TV-star good looks and character and was a rare global icon of the (increasingly commercialized) sport.

You have to understand that cricket is a (serious) professional sport in India, Australia, England and other places. Most people on all those places knew Imran back in the '80s.

If he's a Trump we got problems. He perpetuates the Covidian myth, believing that it could be and was controlled by his government interventions. Even as he says they were less intrusive than the US's and west's, his statement is untrue, man doesn't control nature or respiratory viruses like influenza/CV. False. Lie. God's design protects us, as long as we take care of our own temples. I don't have to wear a mask or take a shot of experimental biotech because you drink soda and eat junk food and laze around your house. Doing either of those to myself does nothing to improve the health of others and only harms me. Khan required masks and pushed jabs on his people. He just didn't lock down. Whoopy f'n doo.

And he boasts that socialized medicine, government-provided health services is an achievement he is proud of. Centralized government health is where one-size-fits-all public health policy comes from. One treatment. One truth. No alternatives. No freedom.

Sorry, Darren, I couldn't listen any more to the interview. I'm guessing that he goes on and says some things that made you want to highlight this man and share him with Trump supporters as another voice of freedom against a Deep State machine that runs the world. But as long as those beliefs he holds underpin his world view he is an enemy of freedom. Not just wrong about those points. Health freedom is the most essential freedom of all. It begins at home with our own treatment of our own bodies, nobody else's obligation or responsibility. Nor is it improved by centralized government acting to "protect" us by providing it to us in the form of mandates and collectivized obligations. Thumbs down to this man. I wish I could've stomached more of it to get to the portion you considered valuable for Revolver readers but if he fails those basics he fails the entire cause of freedom.

The Globalist are methodically taking over every country of significance. They got the US now. The US Dictator has made sure that his opponent is blocked in the election and he can do what he wants. We are just too stupid to realize we crossed over to a Dictatorship...we still think we have Republic....

Now they are taking other countries one by one....But what did you think the Endtimes would be like?

I'm confused Darren. How is Trump a "man of the people"? Which people exactly? Not of me, no certainly not. His tariffs on China hurt my business, which does a lot of business in China. And his steel tariffs made my washing machine cost more. So which people is he a man of? Toothless buck toothed rubes who cry about their "jobs" being shipped to China. Their "jobs" were nothing nothing more than menial factory work which can be done by machines. Stop crying rubes and see a dentist.

Managing to get your own washing machine more expensive because of Trump is such an amazing skill, I wonder what other mind bending leadership qualities this guy has for „running“ his „business“.
