There is no stopping it now - it's going to happen

If what we are undergoing is a 100+ year plot to subdue and transform humans into tightly-controlled socialist utopians run by corporations harvesting us for cash and data, welp, that plan is failing. The psychological warfare is failing. The culture cracking, carefully devised, is failing. The forcing of perverse sexual values is failing, the scam that is public education is failing, the scam that is the university is failing. The assault on our health via covid and vaccines has woken up a plurality. The WEF 15 minute cities scam is failing, the climate change scam is so stupid, cruel and obvious, anyone promoting it is viewed by the sensible as either corrupt or stupid and probably both.

We are not lab animals. We are humans with souls and purpose and we are smarter than AI will ever be.

The politicians we are supposed to admire are widely seen as disgusting. Look at the raddled faces of Biden or Clinton to see the result of indulging your worst impulses. We now all roundly loathe the CIA with its internationally linked security states and their trillion-dollar, military-grade propaganda aimed at reducing us to cowed, useless eaters. We see them as scum, which they are. The digital royalty are brutalist fascists with autism, so careless and “libertarian” with all their money and brains their city, the city that birthed them, is a sewer filled with crime and ruined people. That’s their final legacy, ruination. No one should ‘follow’ them anywhere.

Celebrities are seen as repellent beyond measure. The circus-master-ghoul named Anna Wintour, the originator of Vampire’s Ball called the Met Gala, has unleashed a world-wide blackout of all celebrity accounts. Wintour singlehandedly destroyed the health of generations of American women. Before her advent at Vogue, the American woman was shining with vitality and power. Within a decade of this grisly creature at the top women’s magazine in the world, we were bobbleheaded ninnies chasing someone “6’5”, in finance, with a trust fund”. Starved, mincing creatures with broken feet from the shoes she sold us as ideal. We trusted these people. They coasted in on the relentless, incremental establishment of Christian-sourced peace and bent their minds to breaking us.

The only people worshipping celebrities now are mental children. Which means their power is fading fast.

Blockout 2024: How A TikToker At The Met Gala Sparked A Mass Blocking Of Celebs & Influencers

The black community has been broken, rolled over, and immiserated by scum like P. Diddy and Jay Z, who are widely suspected of trafficking the girls who perform in their music videos. There are reports from said women that after they audition, they are led to a shipping container, auctioned off and forced to perform disgusting sexual acts while an audience of repellent men who have paid to watch, cheer. Then they are marched out and forced to dance and fawn in a rap video, because if they can do that, they can live. And that is a snapshot of Sean Comb's repulsive world. And, it is widely suspected, Jay Z. The film from Diddy's last "freak off" sold for $500 million; Rhianna, Justin Bieber, etc were videoed performing in aberrant sexual scenes.

The suspicion is growing that these people, from Biden through Trudeau, to Macron to Zelensky, are united in some repulsive, stupid cult where they actually rape and sacrifice children and drink their blood to get high and feel their power. There is a persistent rumour that Trudeau flies out to western Canada on the taxpayer dime to “surf” but instead goes to a gay party house in Deep Cove, outside Vancouver, where he is violent with young boys. His wife’s therapist was so horrified by what she heard, she talked. Justin, it is believed, was trafficked as a child. King Charles, it is believed, was raped/initiated in the African bush at the age of fifteen by Laurens Van der Post. This was set up by his godfather, Lord Mountbatten, widely suspected of raping orphaned children in northern Ireland, which was the real reason his boat was blown up, not “the IRA”. In this cult, the abused becomes the abuser. You are trained through trauma and extreme forms of psychic pain not to feel, so you can go on to punish and immiserate people. It is straight up Luciferian. It is why “leaders” like Macron and Trudeau can face the fury and suffering of their citizens and shrug. It’s why Bill Gates can see the horrors caused by his vaccine and shrug. They don’t care. They have been conditioned not to care. They have been trained to cruelty. Why does George Soros look like he’s been buried and dug up again? He lost his humanity to this moronic cult of power. He rejoices in the destruction in his wake. No one dares stop them, despite clear criminal activity, vis:

It is widely, widely, believed that this cult originated with Rome, which itself drew on elements from Sumer, Egypt and ancient blood-sacrifice religions, drawing in elements in the Vatican, powered by the old papal families determined to hold onto their wealth and power through murder, genocide, and the death of the human soul. There are so many researchers saying this now and so much testimony from thousands of victims, we need to confront it in order to end it.

Last week I spoke at length about this monstrous cabal to Dr. Peter Breggin, one of the most significant psychiatrists living or dead, much published, and his wife Ginger, the executive director of the Center for Empathic Living. They are the authors of the first book to expose the cabal after the Covid campaign, Covid 19 and the Global Predators, We Are the Prey. Their next book investigates this knot, this brutality, this pollution, in our leadership. To my mind, the Breggins are the top innovators in psychiatry; their work is pivotal, urgent and right.

This stinking evil is the world beneath ours, and as hinted at by King Charles's recent portrait, it plans to emerge as a new world religion. It will be brokered by Charles and

the World Economic Forum, drenched in blood sacrifice. The blood sacrifice will be us, because they believe there needs to be fewer of us. We are slated to die off. It seems utterly preposterous but there is so much evidence, I, among thousands of others, can reach no other conclusion. Charles, by the way, is called the Turd by his friends.

The fate of these “elites”, their destroyed humanity, is echoed in the fate of the British royals. The “King” is so incompetent and vain he can’t even manage his family, much less the spiritual well-being of the world. There is a lot of karmic debt coming due right about now. Where is Catherine? Why did one of his family, Thomas Kingston, a decorated war hero, shoot himself in the head in February? Why did William appear that same weekend with bruises on his face? Why did Anne’s husband meet with William and emerge with a black eye? His brother Andrew is seen as a repellent pedophile. Charles has pancreatic cancer. Sarah Ferguson, Andrew’s ex-wife, has melanoma on top of breast cancer. Charles’s wife, the “Queen”, is rumored to have Parkinson’s. Edward is mysteriously ill. William has a temper that is cruel and violent, and tout London knows about his decade-long-career with the louche-and-married Rose Hanbury, whose elderly husband has a long time male lover who lives with them and another lover in Paris. She is appropriately debauched for this gang. There are far too many photos of Princess Kate with bandaged fingers, a classic abuse tell. If she is not dead, why can't she just appear at the door of her house and wave? Is she refusing to "carry on"? Does she want out? Are they refusing to let her go? Did they kill her because they couldn't afford another Princess Diana? Where are the children?

This is the man who plans to lead a new world religion, having carefully gathered the funds of all the faiths under his wing over the last twenty years, using the money to take land and resources for the oligarchy.

And let's not get into the economic chaos we are facing. OK, you talked me into it. Because this is where we enter the world most people live in. Our "elites" are profoundly profoundly fiscally incompetent. They have broken the economy of every western democracy, raped them of resources and funds, run up insane levels of debt, and consolidated everything they could because our politicians are too cowed and hapless to enforce anti-trust laws. Blackrock and Vanguard should be broken up into a dozen different hedge funds, if not shut down.

It's going to happen. No one can stop it now.

A new book, The Emerging Populist Majority, points out that the Democrats are losing Generation Z and have already lost Millennials, with the exception of single women; 2 to 1 in the case of married Millennials. They are losing people of color at a stampede-pace. Their coalition is breaking apart. The writers, Troy Olson and Gavin Wax, believe we are at a hinge, a tipping point, if you like, where the old civic order is dying. They call the order just fading, the Third Civic Order, which started with Roosevelt and the New Deal, breaking into a roar with WW 2 and ending right about now. It was led first by social reformers who believed that government was the superior problem solver. By the late 80's, it had been captured by plutocrats who proceeded to institute PPPs, which enabled the conscienceless to loot the public purse, while shrieking they were "doing good". Even Republicans didn't argue with the basic ethos of the age. Give away as much as possible to the "under-served", and steal everything else under the guise of 'capitalism'. Bribe the intelligent with lush government contracts. Gin up the "Sixth Great Extinction" and "catastrophic" climate change, and stop growth everywhere.

Financialize everything: future labor, air, water, fertile land, the slaves of China, Africa, South and Central America.

Let everyone rot. Fill their minds with garbage. Scare them witless with one made-up shock after another after another so they can't see what you are doing. These were deliberate, intentional, dreamed up by the Fabians in Britain and the Round Table. First break us with crap education and constant shocks, then corporatize everything, then a tightly controlled utopia.

The Third Civic Order is failing. It was a psy-op from the beginning, as Jasun Horseley, brought up in the heights of the cabal, explains in the Vice of Kings.

One insightful Hegelianism was that to push ideas efficiently it was necessary first to co-opt both political Left and political Right. Adversarial politics—competition—was a loser's game. By infiltrating all major media, by continual low-intensity propaganda, by massive changes in group orientations (accomplished through principles developed in the psychological-warfare bureaus of the military), and with the ability, using government intelligence agents and press contacts, to induce a succession of crises, they accomplished that astonishing feat. (2006, pp. 182–183)

The Democrats are losing black voters, and have mostly lost black men. They have lost mothers. They have lost Hispanics, and most important of all they have lost the young of every color. I suspect that the current regime losing the young is the reason for the ginned-up-by-Soros etc., campus protests. They are trying to recapture a lost age, where they could steal the future, but their foot soldiers are now ninnyes and fools. The mature, the competent have moved on.

Steve Cortes in the afterword of this book writes:

Why will young people drive much of this populist surge in America? In large part, because the policies of the ruling class that have so broadly damaged America have inflicted particular pain upon the young. For example, citizens under the age of forty in 1998 held a 13.1 percent share of all national wealth. By 2021, that total was more than cut in half to only 6 percent. Getting more specific by age grouping, today millennials only own 4.6 percent of all national wealth. For comparison, when the boomers were the same age as millennials are now, back in the late 1980s, as young people they then commanded 21.6 percent of national wealth, nearly five times the present rate.

They cannot fix that. They have nothing in their toolbox that can fix that. There is no giveaway, no “housing policy”, no forgiveness of student debt that will fix that. The only fix is growth. Real growth. Low taxes, regulation cuts, the end to the climate cult.

The solution is both obvious and easy.

When I moved to British Columbia after twenty years in the mega-cities, the province had been languishing under ten years of hard-core socialist rule, and had just elected a new conservative government. The newspaper I was working for sent me to interview the architect of the win, a man called Kevin Falcon. Falcon had gone round every small city and town for a full year and talked to the men and women who made those towns work, not the bureaucrats, but the men and women of business. He proceeded to cut a full one-third of the regulations, and made a rule that for every new regulation, two had to be cut.

Within six months, six months, we were in a massive economic boom, just like the aborted boom of the Trump years. Of course, here, once prosperity had been restored, the greens and socialists took back control and drove it into the ground again.

This time, they won't get it back. Anywhere. We have learned that their fruits are debt, poverty, and grift. The poll below is unprecedented in our politics. The Conservative Party polled at 2% pre-pandemic.

Many of those I read in dissident media are hopeless and anticipate a massive collapse driven, say the most paranoid by some new engineered Covid-like catastrophe like a EMP blackout or an artificial financial collapse, or WW3. I think we are too onto them for that. Anything they try now will be mocked and laughed at by opinion leaders, who frankly are almost all in dissident media. And we are read ten to one.

We have all the ideas now; all the cultural ferment is on our side, the left is dying of gutted and failed ideas. Populism has so much energy behind it, it can't fail, it cannot be suppressed. It can't be suppressed for the same reason I can write about child sacrifice among the elites safely. There are too many of us engaged. The RINOS might fight another election season, the administrative state will fight a rear guard action, but they are for the chopping block and they know it.

Clearly, only a populist vision can facilitate the needed reforms, such as trust-busting versus harmful and pernicious corporate monopolies and oligopolies. Only a true populist movement can insist on onshoring to bring productive capacity back to the shores of America. - The Emerging Populist Majority (p. 321).

Again, this is not organized. But it is happening everywhere. The following is the reason I believe this movement is world-wide. All of the following are from headlines or titles of articles in the mainstream press. Show it to the despairing, or keep it to cheer yourself up. This is a global movement and it is unstoppable. The CCP better watch out, because they will be the last to fall, but fall they will. Their economic model is bullshit and cannot stand.

As far as the administrative state goes, resignations are increasing across the world. So are arrests of thieving bureaucrats and elected officials. Populism is simmering under the surface of every profession, every stronghold, every single country. There is a GenX movement called #RedDawn which is methodically hunting these thieves.

You don't have to read all the following; just enough to demonstrate the future can be very very bright.

And if you want to take it on trust, then please, if you haven't already, consider a very cheap annual subscription. It means you pay about 35 cents per piece. And you don't have to watch an hour of video either to get the point 😊.

Winston Marshall's recent Oxford Union speech celebrating populism and delicious smackdown of Nancy Pelosi show people are no longer buying the lie that they are a basket of unwashed deplorables:

Your Apocaloptimist post and overall work, elizabeth, are exhilarating antidotes to the poisonous defeatism and anti-people propaganda propagated by the philanthropaths and other string-pullers whose victory depends on us cynically giving up and lazily relinquishing our sovereignty.

This is a great piece. My husband and I are terminated nurses from BC, fired for misconduct for not taking the experimental gene therapies. Can you believe right before we were fired by VCHA and Island Health they offered us to take 1 AstraZenica shot and it would "count"?

And now look.... that poison pulled from the market.... and imagine that the BC NDP and Bonnie Henry tried to trick people, holding their jobs over their heads, to take it! The evil we have experienced in BC is without comparison since 1930s Germany or some other fascist regime. We left Canada.... and so thankful we did. We lost everything but we have our health. Take care!
