Unfortunately courtrooms are filled with unhinged activists like Juan Merchan.

When I started covering J6 court proceedings in early 2021, I not only couldn't believe what DOJ prosecutors wrote/said/demanded but how federal judges in Washington consented to even the most egregious demands.

DC judges denying release of nonviolent offenders (obstruction, conspiracy) with no criminal record by concluding the defendant was a "threat" simply because he participated in the protest.

Judges lying about police fatalities; describing Jan 6 as an "insurrection"; blasting defendants for their view that the 2020 election was stolen; blaming Trump (without using his name) for what happened that day.

Judge Tanya Chutkan during one sentencing hearing hinted that Donald Trump should be behind bars.

Judge who consider social media posts of memes critical of Democrats and skeptical of the 2020 election in final sentencing orders.

Judge concealing videos including body worn camera footage; permitting false testimony by police officers (including Gonell, Hodges, and Dunn) related to their injuries and other accusations such as the use of racial slurs; ignoring evidence that undercover officers and confidential human sources were involved in the protest, participated in group chats, instigated some activity, and were embedded in militia groups months before J6.

Judge ordering the cruel transport of J6ers from across the country to be incarcerated in the DC gulag for no reason except to torment them for months and even years before their trial.

Judges refusing to move trials out of DC despite overwhelming proof Trump supporters/J6ers could not get a fair trial in Washington; judges allowing biased individuals to sit on juries bc they promised they could be fair (LOL). THIS IS WHY DOJ HAS A PERFECT CONVICTION RATE IN J6 JURY TRIALS.

I've watched one judge (Royce Lamberth) tell a J6er that a jury was going to find him guilty before the trial even began bc he refused a plea offer.

I watched another judge (Tim Kelly) repeatedly rubber stamp DOJ in the Proud Boys case--even abruptly ending proceedings one day when the defense confronted an FBI agent on the stand over potentially destroyed evidence in the case and proof agents were surveilling atty-client jail conversations.

I watched another judge (Chris Cooper) tell a defendants that 60+ lawsuits for 2020 election found no evidence of voting fraud.

I've watched grown men cry before heartless DC judges, explaining how their lives have been destroyed even for minor low-level misdemeanors--divorces, bankruptcies, public/media shaming accounts, etc--and begging for mercy only t years in prison on a post-Enron document shredding law now poised to be overturned by SCOTUS.

I've watched Judges Kelly and Amit Mehta conclude that briefly shaking a metal fence (Kelly) and a conviction for 1512c2 (Mehta) warranted a "terrorism" enhancement at trial.

I could go on...and I welcome J6ers to add on here...but the real crisis in the country is not just relegated to DOJ/FBI. Activists, vengeful judges pose an even greater threat.

Juan Merchan has lots of company.

This is the government our forefathers warned us about. It's back.
