

Former CDC Director now admits that the COVID "vaccines" NEVER should have been mandated

That's correct. Now, will anyone who currently works at the FDA and CDC admit that too? Of course not. These agencies are cesspools of corruption. AFAIK, not a single honest person works there.

Senator Ron Johnson
@SenRonJohnson

I truly appreciated Dr. Redfield's honesty at the hearing today.

In the clip, former CDC Director Robert Redfield admits that the CDC deliberately underplayed the harms of the COVID vaccine because they didn't want to create vaccine hesitancy.

Their biggest mistake: mandates.

Redfield admitted that the vaccines NEVER should have been mandated.

Wow. A scrupulously honest former public health official. That's a rarity these days.

Where are the apologies?

Where are the apologies from public health officials for blind obedience? Where are the apologies from CEOs for mandating the shots? Where are the apologies from university

Presidents for forcing kids to take the shots to attend school?

Thank you Senator Johnson for exposing the corruption

This is an important disclosure.

If you want to say “Thank you” to Senator Johnson, please consider making a donation, no matter how small, to his re-election campaign. It’s important he stays in office.

Thankfully, Ron Johnson won by only 26,000 votes in November 2022. If people are looking to financially support Incumbent Senators and Senators vying to uproot a Democrat in November 2024, I would research and donate to these people. You won't be sorry: Ted Cruz, Josh Hawley, Rick Scott, Marsha Blackburn, Kari Lake, and Steve Garvey.
