In case you haven't figured it out yet, the US mainstream media are nothing but liars. Their sole job now is to protect the regime and push its twisted, failed agenda. That's it. That's the only reason they even bother getting up in the morning and showing up to work. The propaganda media will lie, cheat, and steal in order to cover for the regime, even if that means placing Americans in harm's way.

And that's exactly what they're doing now when it comes to violent illegals and the skyrocketing crime.

The advertisement is a promotional graphic for 'The Wellness Company Medical Emergency Kit'. It features a dark background with a glowing green line. On the left, there is an image of a person wearing a black face mask and a white lab coat, with a blue bottle of 'VACCINE COVID-19' and a syringe next to them. The text 'Protect Your Family's Health From Medical Tyranny' is written in yellow and white. Below this, the 'THE WELLNESS COMPANY' logo is shown, consisting of a heart with a white ECG line. To the right of the logo, the text 'MEDICAL EMERGENCY KIT' is written in yellow. In the bottom left corner, there is a portrait of Dr. Peter McCullough. In the center, there is an image of an open medical kit containing various bottles and boxes. To the right of the kit, the text 'Strategic assortment of life-saving medications:' is written in white. Below this, three medications are listed with green checkmarks: 'Ivermectin', 'Z-pak', and 'Amoxicillin'. In the bottom right corner, there is a red speech bubble with a yellow arrow pointing to it, containing the text 'UNLOCK REVOLVER DISCOUNT' in white.

One issue in particular where this is happening in real time is with the Venezuelan gangs commandeering several hotels in Colorado.

As we inch closer to the 2024 election, the media, in a shameful attempt to downplay this nightmare, is playing “gotcha” games to paint President Trump as the “real problem.” No, President Trump is the only one standing up for the American people during their time of need.

It's hard to believe that our state-run media has sunk this low, but now ABC's Martha Raddatz is right there in the gutter, doing her best to protect Harris and Walz from this violent scandal. Thankfully, JD Vance gave it right back to her, with both barrels.

Greg Price

@greg_price11 · Follow

Raddatz: "The incidents were limited to a handful of apartment complexes... A handful."

Vance: "Do you hear yourself? Only a HANDFUL of apartment complexes were taken over by Venezuelan gangs and Donald Trump is the problem??"

You can no longer rely on the US propaganda media for actual news. Folks, we're on our own out here. Thankfully, the people most impacted by this violent Venezuelan nightmare are speaking up and telling the truth about what's really going on—and trust us, it's a completely different story than the one the fake news is spinning.

The management company overseeing the properties that were commandeered by the violent, illegal gangs is setting the record straight. They took to X, sharing details about what's really happening here in the United States.

We started managing these buildings when new owners acquired the Colorado properties in 2019. At the time, the properties were in poor condition, and our mission was to renovate them, thereby increasing their value. This was an ambitious project that would significantly benefit the people of Aurora while providing returns to the new owners.

At the time, the properties were in poor condition, and our mission was to renovate them, thereby increasing their value. This was an ambitious project that would significantly benefit the people of Aurora while providing returns to the new owners.

We understood this project would take years to yield results and would be both time-consuming and costly, involving comprehensive upgrades to every unit and the overall structure. To manage the project effectively, given our New York-based operations, our representative moved to Colorado with his family.

We also undertook a complete renovation of nearly every unit in the now well-known building you've seen in the news. (The images shown depict our newly renovated apartments.)

Everything was progressing smoothly: property values were rising, and vacancy rates were dropping. It was a win-win for both the owners and the city of Aurora.

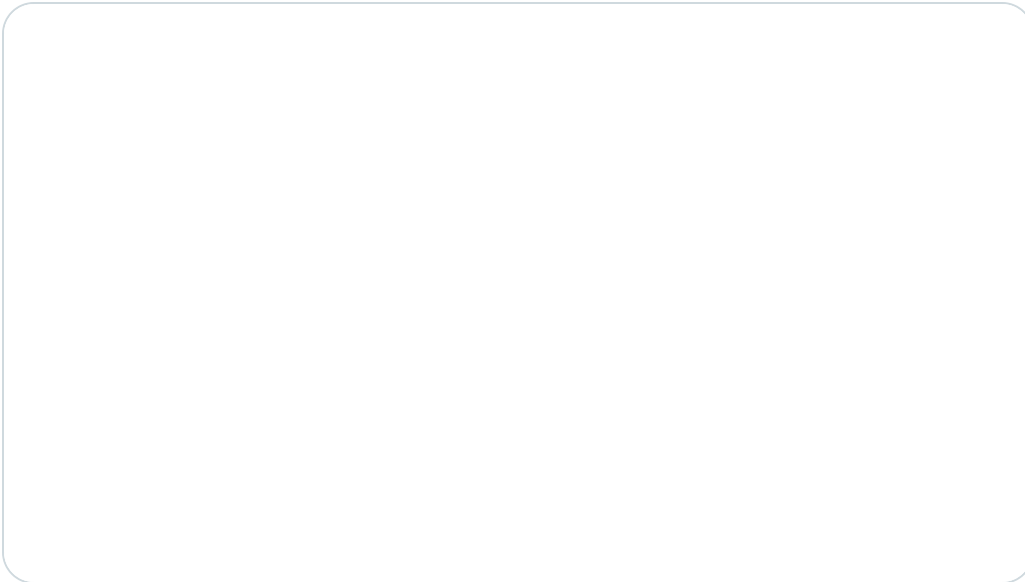

Then, the gangs arrived...

After some time, we noticed a rise in crime and tenant complaints. The most alarming moment occurred when our local CBZ representative was attacked at the end of 2023.

He had gone to inspect a recently vacated three-bedroom apartment (a rare occurrence for such a large unit) only to find a group of men already inside. When he refused their $500 bribe to overlook the situation, they brutally attacked him. (This photo was taken shortly after he escaped, just before being admitted to the hospital. The video footage comes from one of our security cameras, capturing part of the assault.)

After the attack on our CBZ representative, he began getting threatening text messages. We also frequently found people illegally occupying newly vacated apartments during scheduled tours. This was initially attributed to an influx of migrants exploiting squatter laws. We even received a call from a tenant returning from vacation, only to find strangers living in his apartment. This legitimate tenant was forced to find a new home after police couldn't help him.

When confronted, many of these illegal tenants and squatters claimed they had already paid rent, which we soon realized was true—but not to us. They were paying rent to a different entity.

To address this entity (gangs) we contacted every city official we could think of for help with the problem. Unfortunately, none were willing to take meaningful action.

Meanwhile, our CBZ representative continued receiving threatening messages, in which these criminals revealed his home address and his spouse's name.

Finally, the APD, FBI and Homeland Security informed us that those sending the messages and controlling our buildings were part of the notorious Tren De Aragua gang from Venezuela. They also mentioned that our situation was just “a blip on the radar,” as this gang is causing significant problems nationwide.

Two days after our FBI meeting, the gang confronted our on-site manager, asserting control over all three properties. They offered an ultimatum: share rental income 50/50 or lose the buildings permanently. They also threatened to harm him and his family.

For the safety of our management team and their families, we withdrew them from the properties and focused on seeking help from government agencies.

Once we fully understood what we—and our tenants—were facing, we expected a swift response, with the city offering meaningful resources and police protection—perhaps even from the National Guard—to help us regain control of our properties. That never happened. Instead, we were left helpless, watching as violence, bullets, and destruction overtook our buildings. Many of our legitimate tenants fled out of fear.

Despite the obvious crisis, several city officials refused to acknowledge the reality. Instead, they blamed us, citing “code violations” as the reason for shutting down our property—violations we couldn’t resolve for tenants who weren’t even ours.

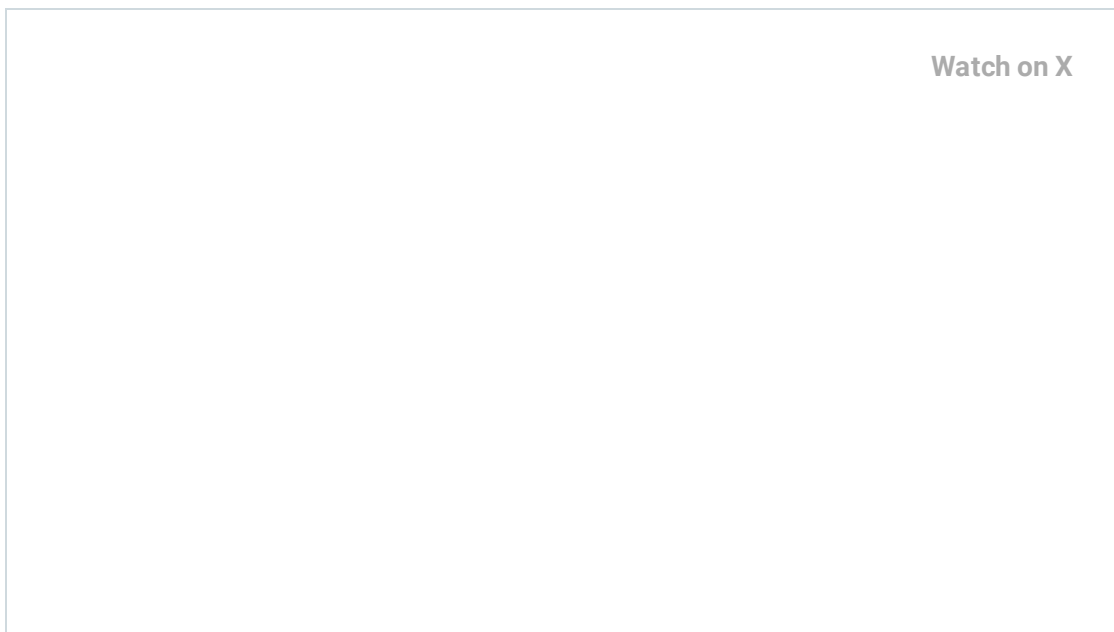

Finally, one city councilwoman, @DaniJurinsky, decided to take action after one of our last remaining legitimate tenants, Cindy Romero, reached out to her in desperation.

Luckily, Cindy had her own cameras (most of ours had been destroyed by the gangs) and provided video proof to the councilwoman.

She realized the city could no longer ignore the situation if it was documented on camera.

Once she gathered sufficient video evidence, she assisted the tenant in relocating to safety before publicly releasing the footage.

Despite clear evidence, many still deny the reality of the situation, sometimes using us as scapegoats. That's why we are no longer staying silent. We will continue to counter falsehoods with simple facts and evidence.

Yes, gangs did take control of our apartment complexes in Aurora, Colorado, and the government did nothing. That is the real story.

If you have any questions, please feel free to ask.

So, there you have it, folks—the truth straight from the horse's mouth. This is just more proof that you can't trust our media as far as you can throw them.

The truth is, the media is working overtime to make it seem like this violent, horrific reality isn't happening. They're twisting the truth, trying to turn real news into "fake news." It's the ultimate form of gaslighting, and it's downright evil. Let's be honest—they should have their licenses pulled for actively endangering Americans.

READ MORE: The MacArthur Joke 'Geniuses' Are Proof DEI Is Still Dominant

The fact that they're willing to cover for criminal gangs, downplay soaring crime, and ignore the dangers of an open border just to protect this failing regime is nothing short of treachery. These so-called "journalists" are complicit in the destruction of our country. They're not just misleading the public; they're putting lives at risk, all in the name of keeping power where it doesn't belong.

It's time to vote these elite globalists out of office and strip the media of their little de facto "Dem Super PAC" powers, once and for all.

FBI doesn't want their agents to be shot at in performing their duties. Don't show up to the crime scene until all action is cleared up by LEOs. Same for LEO agents.

The solution is called shoot, shovel and shut up.

Even in an urban setting its easy enough to accomplish cause with 50 bucks and very basic knowhow you can easily make a can.

The missing persons rate in the US is well over 4x the official murder rate.

The vast majority of them are criminals who are never seen or heard from again....

Maglight tube, thread adapter, doorman auto plugs and a drill press for the plugs.

Other than the drill press its only about 65-75 bucks and will work for thousands of rounds while also being very easy to break down and dispose of.

This story gives some insight into why so much of the country has been brainwashed into voting demorat. Martha Radditz was interviewing JD Vance and mentioned it was only a few apt buildings taken over and the democrats running Co. told her it was taken care of. She was just repeating lies that reinforced her prejudices. That's why dems stay in their little bubbles. It protects them from having their entire world view blown up by truth, facts and reality. JD Vance shoved it right back in her face and exposed her for the fool she is.

I remember clearly how Raddatz started crying on TV after it became clear that Trump won in 2016. It just shows how emotionally invested these MSM journalists are for the Dem Party. Surveys have also shown that the majority of MSM journalists are to the left of grass root liberals. They get trained to be activists acting as journalists.

Two years ago, Americans - at least those who can read - witnessed The Elites on Martha's Vineyard, sideline a busload of illegal migrants, feed them dry cereal and milk, and keep them quarantined long enough to commandeer another bus to get them off their island and shipped ANYWHERE ELSE. One wonders how Martha Raddatz would feel upon returning home this evening - to her Lorcom Ln. Estate in Arlington, VA - to find "foot soldiers" of Tren de Aragua posted at her front door, demanding payment before allowing her inside her own home. It wouldn't happen. Because, like Martha's Vineyard, certain "undesirables" are OK in Aurora, CO, but not on the hallowed ground of liberal elite Progressives in Arlington, VA. According to Raddatz, it's ok for illegal terrorists like Tren de Aragua to harass and intimidate the most vulnerable in our society - those in low income situations, while looking the other way. How rich, Martha.

Notice how the law has become problematic when you try to evict squatters from PRIVATE property, but the J6 protesters found out *you can't trespass for a few minutes on PUBLIC property without facing the full force of the law.

*IF you are a conservative. When lefties occupied the Wisconsin State Capitol for THREE WEEKS about 12 years ago, police were ordered to stand-down, and no one was arrested.
