The American Accountability Foundation released names of leftist bureaucrats serving in federal government who have betrayed America by sabotaging border security.

More than 15 million illegal aliens – mainly military-age males – have poured over the border since Joe Biden and Kamala Harris were installed in January 2021.

DHS Chief Alejandro Mayorkas is just one government goon who has overseen one of the worst invasions in US history.

There is a team of bureaucrats betraying the country and the American Accountability Foundation put together a list on DHSWatchlist.com.

“The DHS Bureaucrat Watch List is dedicated to exposing the career staff who have outsized influence on efforts to secure the southern border. While everyone knows who Alejandro Mayorkas and Merrick Garland are, few Americans know who the career bureaucrats are that implement their orders,” the American Accountability Foundation said.

“By uncovering hidden agendas and failures, we aim to restore integrity to our immigration system and border protection by showing America who can be counted on to reform America’s broken immigration system and who is in league with left-wing open border groups. Join us in defending our borders and reclaiming America’s sovereignty,” the watchdog group said.

“For too long, these leftist bureaucrats have operated in the shadows, shaping government policy according to their own extreme agenda. Instead of trying to persuade Americans to support them in elections, these radicals take up little-known, yet powerful, positions in the Federal government, where they can dictate government policy with zero accountability,” they said.
