60 USAID Officials Removed From Duty

January 28, 2025 | Sundance | 571 Comments

According to media reports, President Trump has removed the entire leadership structure of the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), previously run by Samantha Power.

This is not necessarily a domestic issue. Those who walk the deepest political weeds well understand that USAID is the cover agency for the interventionist efforts of the CIA. USAID is the agency silo that coordinates the meddling in foreign elections, organizes the revolutions and political opposition of those deemed out of alignment with global democratic norms, funds the NGOs who do the ground operations, and generally seeks to replace foreign leaders.

President Trump has just removed the entire leadership structure of the USAID enterprise, approximately 60 government officials. You can bet that nationalist leaders of foreign countries are smiling now while Brussels (EU Commission) is left wondering who will pay for the foot soldiers.

(Via Politico) – [...] The order — sent via email to members of the senior executive and senior Foreign Service — was issued close to the end of the business day Monday and was effective immediately, according to two current USAID officials and three former USAID officials told of the communication. It comes as USAID and the State Department have been ordered to impose halts on a vast number of humanitarian and related programs around the world.

The decision appears to affect nearly every career staffer who holds a top leadership role at the agency, at least in Washington — around 60 officials, the current and former officials said.

The cuts have left many offices within the agency entirely devoid of senior non-political leadership. The entire cadre of leaders who run USAID's bureau for global health, for example, was put on leave, according to two of the officials.

“This is a huge morale hit,” said a former senior Trump administration official who was also told of the move. “This is the leadership of the agency. This is like taking out all the generals. I don’t know what they hope to accomplish by it.” (read more)

USAID was created by an EO by JFK. Therefore it follows that it can be dissolved by PDJT. If that happens where will the spooks operate from? BTW, CIA is an Independent Agency created by Congress and reporting to Congress with no Executive Branch oversight. And when was the last time you saw CIA hauled before Congress ? The IC’s run this country.

Correct. If the President appoints the cabinet level head of the agency & the Senate confirms then it's a Executive Branch agency.

CIA is an independent federal agency: <https://www.archives.gov/records-mgmt/rcs/schedules/index.html?dir=/independent-agencies>

All the President appoints is his liaison with that agency (director). Our taxes pay their core operating expenses but they generate operating expenses through other means.. Not only are there independent federal agencies, but there are also U.S. corporations (USAID runs one), Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs), and I'm sure others I haven't learned about yet.

GB Bari  January 29, 2025 5:35 pm

That describes the CIA's weasel-worded wet dream – being “independent.” There is No. Such. Thing.

There is zero provision in the U.S. Constitution that provides for ANY part of the Federal government to be independent from any of the three branches, nor can any part of the fed. govt. report administratively to more than one of the three branches.

ALL agencies and departments of the Federal govt. that are not aligned to the Legislative Branch (Congress), or the Judicial Branch (U.S. courts – District, Appellate, Bankruptcy & Supreme) fall under the authority of the Executive Branch, the head of which is POTUS.

The entire object pf the Constitution was to make every part of the federal government responsible to the U.S. citizens (voters), either directly (Congress members and President), or indirectly (Executive Branch – headed by POTUS (impeachable by Congress) and Judiciary (appointed by POTUS but approved by and impeachable by Congress).

SCOTUS' July 2024 ruling (Loper Bright Enterprises v. Raimondo, Relentless v. Department of Commerce) overturned the 1984 Chevron ruling and confirmed the Executive's ultimate authority over ALL government agencies.

it's a controversial area but there are degrees of presidential control over government bodies created by congress, such as the cia. from the notorious propagandist, wikipedia:

In the United States government, independent agencies are agencies that exist outside the federal executive departments (those headed by a Cabinet secretary) and the Executive Office of the President.[1]:6 In a narrower sense, the term refers only to those independent agencies that, while considered part of the executive branch, have regulatory or rulemaking authority and are insulated from presidential control, usually because the president's power to dismiss the agency head or a member is limited.

Established through separate statutes passed by Congress, each respective statutory grant of authority defines the goals the agency must work towards, as well as what substantive areas, if any, over which it may have the power of rulemaking. These agency rules (or regulations), when in force, have the power of federal law.[2]

These agencies are not represented in the cabinet and are not part of the Executive Office of the president:[18]

The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) gathers foreign intelligence and provides national security assessments to policymakers in the United States. It acts as the primary human intelligence provider for the federal government. It is one of the principal members of the Intelligence Community, which is overseen by the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), which is itself an independent agency.

The US President has Executive authority over every single intel agency in the US and plenary power to dismiss any “independent” employee within these agencies, this is crystal clear, and reflected by every org chart in existence.

No. It was created as an “independent” agency (independent of other agencies but still under the Executive’s authority). Over time it developed a corrupt relationship with State but then so has the CIA. The three make a triangle of corruption and abuse of power around the world that’s unequaled in any other Branch of Govt.

“BTW, CIA is an Independent Agency created by Congress and reporting to Congress with no Executive Branch oversight.”

Might want to check your sources. That’s just totally wrong.

“The National Security Act of 1947 established CIA as an independent, civilian intelligence agency within the executive branch. The Act charged CIA with coordinating the Nation’s intelligence activities and, among other duties, collecting, evaluating, and disseminating intelligence affecting national security. The Act also created a Director of Central Intelligence, or DCI, to lead both CIA and the U.S. Intelligence Community. The DCI also served as the president’s main adviser on all intelligence matters.”

The CIA is an INDEPENDENT agency of the executive branch. That means that it works directly for the President. It does NOT fall under DOD, or DOJ, or State. In an org chart the D/CIA's line goes directly to the President, the same as the SecDef, SecState, Attorney General, etc.

Congress has oversight of ALL Executive Branch agencies via control of funding, including the CIA. Congressional oversight of the CIA is via the House Intel Committee (HIPSCI) and the Senate Intel Committee (SISCI).

All CIA operations are undertaken in the name of the President. Covert actions require a "Presidential Finding," a document signed by the President spelling out details of the operation, goals, risks, and funding.

OPM on the afternoon and evening of the 28th sent out a 'deferred resignation' offer letter to apparently ALL FedGov employees.

IF you resign with an effective date of Sept 30th, 2025, you get 8 months severance pay.

An 8-month paid vacation before you officially resign Sept 30.

The offer's only good till Feb 6th.

I know at least one union, the NTEU (National Treasury Employees Union) sent out an emergency email last night, urging members NOT to sign the offer.

I think this move caught them unawares.

Oh wow.

DJT must think that it's better to pay 8 months' salary to make 'workers' go away... than to: pay... and pay... and pay. Forever and a day.

It's actually NOT an offer to resign and collect 8 months severance pay. It was an offer to allow the employee to resign, effective September 30, 2025 and not be subject to return-to-office requirements (i.e. they can keep teleworking). If they agree to resign, they cannot change their minds and must agree to keep working through that date as a dedicated federal employee. I just read the email that was sent out from a friend who is a federal employee. The media is misrepresenting it as a severance offer for no work, which is definitely not the case.

“A week is really a long time.”

I think that is how President Trump put it last Friday (January 24, 2025) when he was at the meeting with LA Mayor Karen Bass and others regarding the Palisades fire (helping the property-owners to get onto THEIR property to begin the process of clearing the debris rather than waiting for a permit to do so and ultimately having to pay a contractor $25,000 when they could be doing the clearing themselves).

suejeanne  January 28, 2025 10:57 pm

Regarding Voice of America, which is under USAID:

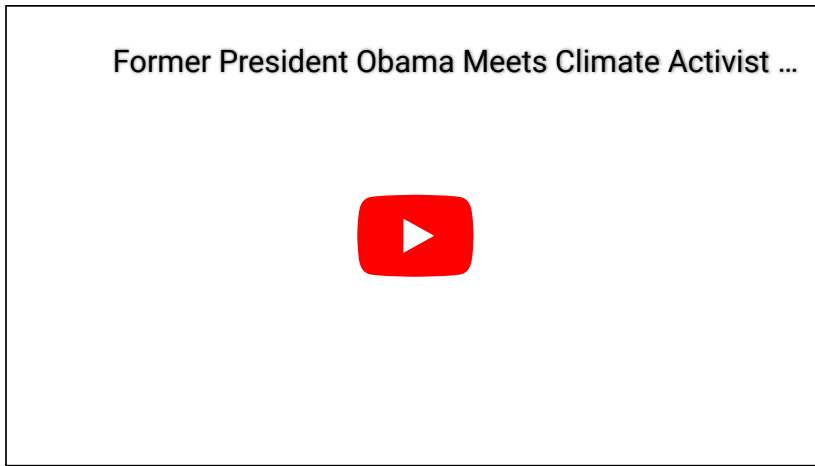

I have personally been harping on this Voice of America (VOA) video showing Greta Thunberg meeting with President Barack Obama during the first administration of President Donald Trump. The video was created soon after the United Nations appearance of Greta Thunberg where then-President Trump totally ignored her and walked on by . . . while she glared at him with such hatred.

This video shows the meeting she had with Obama following the UN non-meeting-glaring-at-Trump episode.

Look there on the video, you see the logo for Voice of America – VOA – on the video – so what bothered me then and since is that apparently Barack Obama had advocates at the VOA who used US government funds/resources to produce this video, which is clearly from an angle of undermining the current President at that time, Donald Trump and using VOA resources to present the former President meeting with a person from a foreign country to discuss environmental policy? To show that Obama is in sympathy with Ms. Thunberg's environmental concerns.

I hope all the VOA people who produced that video are also gone and will not be back!

VOA was originally under State and the War Department (IC elements), then USIA/USICA (1953–1999). In 1999, USIA was dissolved and returned to State with the exception of media elements like VOA which were handed over to the newly created Broadcasting Board of Governors (BBG now USAGM). At that same time, elements were pulled from USIA and IDCA to create USAID. ACDA was also dissolved and added to State. That being said, nothing is ever truly abolished/transferred and State still has control over numerous sites worldwide and their Public Affairs branch is still heavily involved in media elements (as we obviously see).

“At this time, we cannot give you full assurance regarding the certainty of your position or agency.” 2.2 million people were just threatened with losing their jobs. The extremely competent people will take the deal and go work in some private industry, leaving the dross to handle the government affairs. Ironically, it’s the dross PT wants to get rid of. Why not just do that? Rather than threaten ALL employees, why not ask each department head to slash the workforce by x percentage?

Unless specifically prohibited, they can still remain in communication with subordinates and other stakeholders, while “on leave”. Remember, the overwhelming majority of federal government are set up for “telework” now, this transition could be seamless.

USAID “firings” = more inflated posturing?
