USAID Target Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban Responds to USAID Revelations

February 6, 2025 | Sundance | 109 Comments

Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban was designated as a target by CIA/USAID revolution efforts for his nationalist mindset and opposition to the global agenda of the European Commission. Orban is also a very strong ally of President Trump and a close personal friend.

Today, Prime Minister Orban reacts to the sunlight now unstoppable upon the agenda of USAID and the architect of the targeting effort, USAID Administrator Samantha Power.

[Source]

PM Orban is the most fearless of the targets, but it is unlikely he will be the last one to speak out. The CIA/USAID had many targets for regime change, Viktor Orban, in alignment with President Trump, was just the one who went most public in his opposition to their efforts. Keep in mind, Bolsonaro in Brazil was one of the targets who was successfully removed.

BACKGROUND BELOW as previously outlined in 2023:

Hungary has been in the crosshairs of the Biden/Obama administration ever since Prime Minister Viktor Orban refused to align with the WEF Western Democracies in their quest for regime change in Russia. As the NATO led western alliance assembled to use Ukraine as a proxy war against Russia, Hungarian Prime Minister Orban would not join.

In early April 2022, Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban was overwhelmingly reelected {LINK}, despite the massive efforts against him by the European Union, western and euro-centric multinational globalists. As a result of the victory, Brussels was furious at the Hungarian people. Associated Press – [...] “Orban — a fierce critic of immigration.

Within the statements reported from his 2022 victory speech, Prime Minister Orban warned citizens of the NATO and western allied countries about the manipulation of Ukraine and how he views the Zelenskyy regime: [...] “while speaking to supporters on Sunday, Orban singled out Zelenskyy as part of the “overwhelming force” that he said his party had struggled against in the election — “the left at home, the international left, the Brussels bureaucrats, the Soros empire with all its money, the international mainstream media, and in the end, even the Ukrainian president.” (link)

This put Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban in the crosshairs of the western alliance, specifically the EU and U.S. bureaucrats who use their power, position and intelligence apparatus to manipulate foreign nations. A year later and now we see USAID Administrator Samantha Power in Hungary openly discussing her seeding of the NGO’s and political activist systems in order to generate yet another color revolution. {Direct Rumble Link} – WATCH:

USAID in Hungary

Samantha Power, the wife of Cass Sunstein, is well known as the Obama/Biden administration's advance operative who uses her position in U.S. government to influence activism in targeted nations. Hungary is now her target.

Why is eliminating Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban now the goal of the Biden administration. Well, a reminder:

- ◆ Hungary warned citizens of the west about the New World Order, created through Ukraine.
- ◆ Hungary continued to purchase Russian oil and natural gas. Zelensky and the Western alliance were furious.
- ◆ Hungary said they would continue energy purchases in Rubles if that is what Russia demanded.

The World Economic Forum and NATO/Western Alliance cannot permit a nation to stand on principles of nationalism. Allowing a point of contrast that would showcase the weakness of globalism and multiculturalism is something the western control system just cannot permit.

As a result, Samantha Power, the U.S. State Dept (USAID) and the CIA, are collectively running an operation in Hungary, seeding the groundwork for the next color revolution.

They don't even try to hide this stuff anymore.

Just keep watching.... More will become visible, and our conversation will now have context for what comes next.

[FWIW, I always suspected S Power of being a CIA operative]

I would love to see Orban put out arrest warrants for Obama, Powers, and any USAID workers implicated in working inside the sovereign state of Hungary. I'd bet dollars to doughnuts that there are quite a few Hungarian and international laws that were violated. Demand the ICC adhere to these arrest warrants.

Bonus: now that the ICC has a warrant out for Netanyahu it'd be somewhat funny to see the Left talking about why they'd get a pass but eradicating terrorism with state sanction is criminal.

How well I remember her from way back. And I found it interesting that when things got hot for her back then, her husband Cass resigned from his position for no apparent reason that I recall. Remember when she denied any knowledge of requesting any unmasking requests, although many were under her name? Of course, no one pursued it further at the time.

"Power was directly involved in the Obama administration's surveillance of Trump's 2016 presidential campaign and sought to obtain Michael Flynn's redacted identity using an "unmasking" request on at least seven occasions, Fox News Digital previously reported, despite testifying under oath before the House Intelligence Committee that she had "no recollection" of ever making such a request even once."

Below is an excerpt from an internal Politico memo reportedly obtained by Fox News. If the USAID money paid for prescriptions to a premium news service, that would seem to give a modicum of legitimacy to the expenditure (which was perhaps the objective). Thoughts?

” Sheikholeslami and Harris stressed Politico “has never been a beneficiary of government programs or subsidies—not one cent, ever, in 18 years” and touted that its subscription service Politico Pro “provides both private and public sector clients with granular, fact-based reporting, real-time intelligence, and tracking tools across key policy areas.”

“We are proud of the value our POLITICO Pro platform and policy journalism gives to all subscribers. As a practical matter, the overwhelming majority of our professional subscriptions under POLITICO Pro are in the private sector,” they wrote.”

All of these NGOs funded by our government through USAID or otherwise should not have tax exempt status. They launder money by transferring money from group to group until it is untraceable. If an NGO had to pay taxes on the income each time it was transferred, transferring the money around wouldn't make sense.

USAID has tried in so many countries, but we also need NED taken down and exposed. Their efforts have a mixed result.

Hungary – fail

Belarus – fail

Pakistan – success (Imran Khan no confidence vote despite popular support)

Moldova – partial success so far

Georgia – fail

- Venezuela – fail
- Slovakia – fail
- Bangladesh – success
- Ukraine – success
- Thailand – success according to Brian Bertilec
- Syria – success
- Iran – fail
- Russia – fail
- Libya – success

I have more respect for the intelligence and perspicacity of people in countries where USAID has failed to get regime change. This is only the countries that I know about. I am sure there are others that readers here know.

I am hoping the cut-off of USAID has a positive effect on Moldova.

USAID gave grants to Mediapart, a french digital news media, funded in 2008 by a Trotskyist. In 2018 it changed his statute to become a non profit organisation. It always claims that: " the only people who can buy them are the subscribers.....", apparently it is a lie. They have been behind the fall and indictment of Francois Fillon (who was the favorite to win against Macron) concerning stories about expensive tailored suits and fake jobs given to his wife....The non stop law fare against Nicolas Sarkozy etc...all of these stories are written with leaked phone calls and transcripts. So I now understand how they were always able to get private phone calls between concerned parties..... CIA maybe?

Samantha Power must be prosecuted. Bondi and Patel need to develop the case against her, not just for this, but the Russian collusion narrative and the second impeachment effort against Trump, which she was a part of. They need to present the facts, and TRUTHFULLY present the case to the American public. It's insufficient to simply imprison these Communist socialists who acted for socialism with US resources, and in our names.

The case can, and must be made to prove for the record, that Trump led law enforcement agencies act Constitutionally, to promote equal justice under the law. It's JUSTICE, not retribution. The Communist Democrats are the party of illegal prosecution, retribution and reprisals.

I pray for the same... that will be a gargantuan effort. Maybe we can crowdsource the document searches or apply AI to it, the way Naomi Wolfe's group pored thru the so-called jab "research studies"

Why not EXTRADITION-on-DEMAND?

How many nations might STAND-in-LINE?

The psychopathic gaze always gets me.

This was epic Machiavellianism, and skulduggery.

President Trump is the master of defeating both.

I have rather bad eyesight, but isn't the person in the middle of the photo Susan Rice – not Valerie Jarrett???

I almost started crying reading that ammo.com info about color revolutions. It's frightening, and it makes Trump's election all the more miraculous. Even if the color revolution attempts fail, the damage they cause is tremendous. The estimated damage for the riots in summer 2020 is $2 billion. And the rioters, escaping punishment, have been emboldened to do it again when called.

Not including the cost of the riots paid to rioters by left wing cities and the costs of the riots if they were being paid through our tax dollars.

I read that Power was born in London to apparently average Irish parents. How does someone like that end up so deeply imbedded in US politics? I was thinking her parents might be intelligence assets and she became one too.

Sort of like Obama. Their parents probably knew each other.

Hungary was a bad deal, with the attempted regime changes. But there are dozens of these successful and failed regime change projects, and by far the largest is the Ukraine scam.

Need to get rid of the National Endowment for Democracy next. And the funding for NGOs that organize the logistics for the largest mass migration in history. Of unvetted aliens into our country.

The border wasn't broken. It is national financed policy to transport tens of millions into our country.

Tell me she doesn't look like Willem Defoe as Agent Smecker from "The Boondock Saints"!
