

Judicial Coup

TIERNEY'S REAL NEWS

MAR 19, 2025

President Trump deported 238 gang members from the Venezuelan gang, Tren de Aragua, to El Salvador, because he said that these individuals posed a severe threat the United States and are conducting “irregular warfare” against America.

Liberal judges are trying to use court orders to delay or stop President Trump from using his authority to protect America from domestic and foreign threats and deport criminal illegal aliens - which many are now calling a “Judicial Coup.”

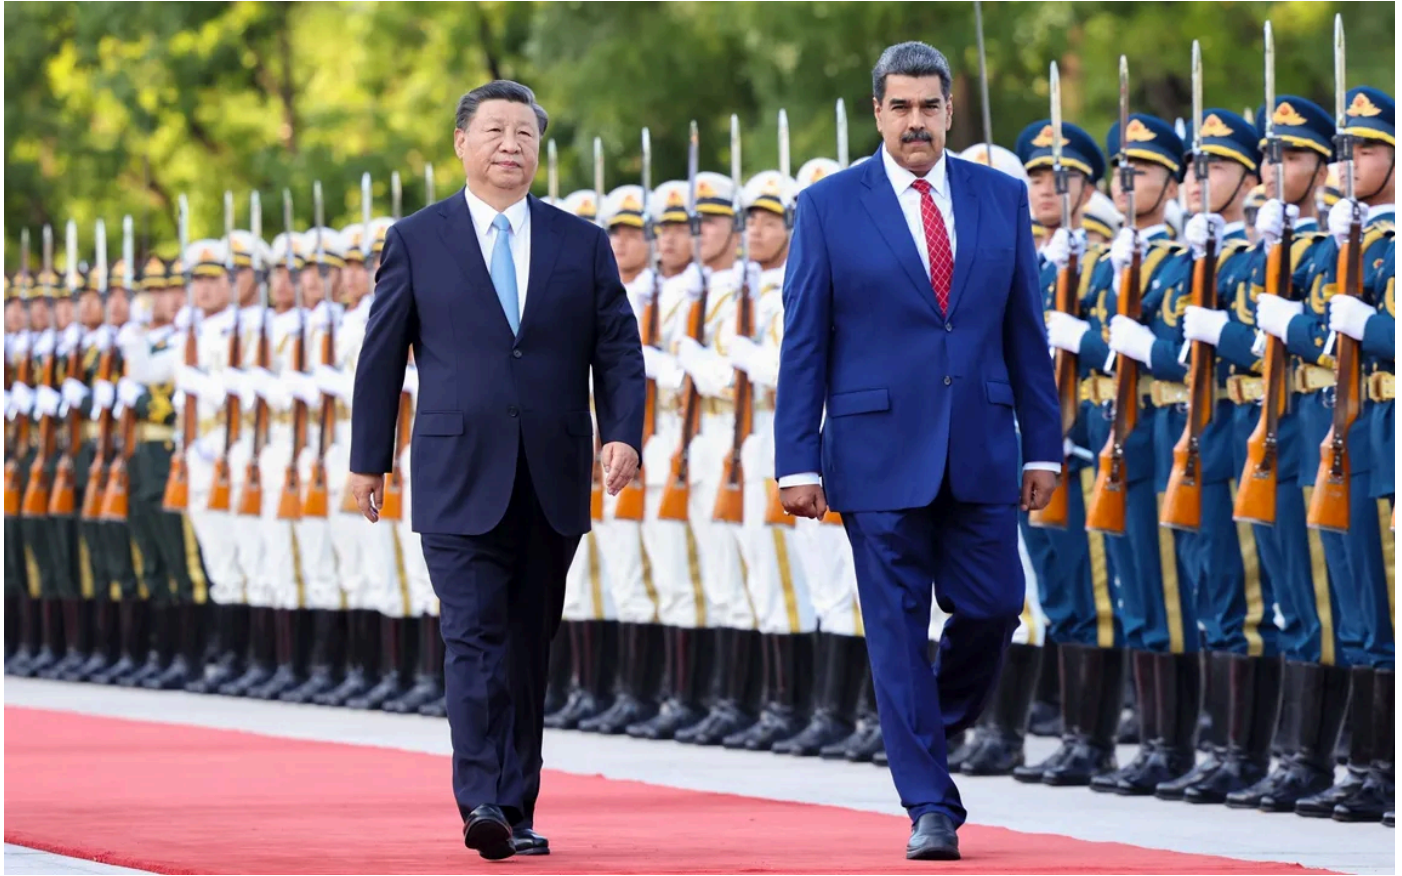

The information on this is confusing and coming out in bits and pieces and I haven't found anyone reporting the entire story - so I thought I'd do that. Here's what I know so far:

Tren de Aragua (TdA) is a transnational criminal organization and Foreign Terrorist Organization from Communist Venezuela. It is believed to have over 5,000 members and has expanded throughout Latin America and the United States - with at least 3,000 active members in America. The gang's goal is to infiltrate countries and set up a base of operation for their criminal activity. El Paso, Texas is considered the gang's "ground zero" in America while they spread out to Texas, Florida, New York, Colorado, and other US states. Dark red is their confirmed presence in the Americas.

PRESIDENT TRUMP: "Maduro emptied his jails and sent his worst—Tren de Aragua—to attack us from within. It's irregular warfare, folks, and I'm stopping it cold. This isn't just crime—it's warfare by a foreign enemy using gangs as their soldiers. Venezuela's Communist dictator [Maduro] sent his Tren de Aragua thugs to wage war on America—Biden let them in, I'm sending them out!"

History shows that Communist leader of Venezuela, Nicholas Maduro, with direct ties to Communist China & the Mexican cartels, has been reluctant to take his gangster back and also now claims that the gang doesn't even exist anymore. This alone should give you pause.

Most thinking Americans are well aware that if you wanted to invade America you would set up shop in Communist Venezuela. This is not rocket science.

So, Trump's plan bypassed Maduro's nonsense and involved sending the TdA gangs to El Salvador's mega-prison, the Terrorism Confinement Center (CECOT), under a agreement with President Nayib Bukele, who accepted them for a fee, reportedly $6 million for 300 migrants over a year. If America were to keep the illegal alien gangs here on American soil - instead of deporting them - the cost to American taxpayers would be over $200 million, not $6 million.

So far, the illegal alien TdA gang members have been arrested hundreds of times in US - for crimes including drug trafficking, human trafficking, sexual assault, terrorism, theft, murder, attempted murder and kidnapping. The murder victims so include 22-year old Laken Riley of Georgia, 33-year old Arneaud-Petit in Texas, a retired police officer in Florida and the attempted murder of 2 New York police officers.

Tren de Aragua began in the early 2010s in Tocarón prison, located in Venezuela's Aragua state, about 80 miles southwest of Caracas. It emerged under the leadership "Niño Guerrero" who was imprisoned in 2005 for murdering a police officer.

By 2014, Guerrero and his associates had transformed the gang into a powerful "megabanda" within the prison. Under the "pran" system - where crime bosses run prisons with Maduro's approval - Tren de Aragua turned Tocarón into a criminal headquarters, complete with a zoo, nightclub, and pool, funded by extortion, drug trafficking, and kidnappings.

In other words, the Communist dictator of Venezuela let TdA run the prison and live like Kings within it.

Facilities inside Tocarón prison

Source: Runrun.es

In September 2023, Maduro's forces allegedly raided Tocarón with 11,000 troops, but Guerrero and key leaders escaped, possibly tipped off, and the gang's operations have continued unabated across borders, including into the U.S.

Maduro’s United Socialist Party (PSUV) has denied that the gang exists anymore right - but the President of El Salvador - Nayib Bukele - says that Maduro deliberately emptied his prisons and sent them north to invade and terrorize America.

The gang’s brutal tactics - torture, beheadings, maiming and burying victims alive - are well-documented in Latin America. President Trump does not want to allow this to continue and fester in the US.

To get them out quickly, President Trump invoked the Alien Enemies Act of 1798, a rarely used wartime statute that allows the president to detain, arrest, and deport noncitizens over 14 years old from a nation deemed an enemy during a declared war when facing an “invasion or predatory incursion.” Historically, it was used during the War of 1812, World War I, and World War II.

It reads:

50 U.S.C. § 21 - Restraint, regulation, and removal of alien enemies:

"Whenever there is a declared war between the United States and any foreign nation or government, or any invasion or predatory incursion is perpetrated, attempted, or threatened against the territory of the United States by any foreign nation or government, and the President makes public proclamation of the event, all natives, citizens, denizens, or subjects of the hostile nation or government, being of the age fourteen years and upward, who shall be within the United States and not actually naturalized, shall be liable to be apprehended, restrained, secured, and removed as alien enemies.

The President is authorized, in any such event, by his proclamation thereof, or other public act, to direct the conduct to be observed, on the part of the United States, toward the aliens who become so liable; the manner and degree of the restraint to which they shall be subject and in what cases, and upon what security their residence shall be permitted, and to provide for the removal of those who, not being permitted to reside within the United States, refuse or neglect to depart therefrom; and to establish any other regulations which are found necessary in the premises and for the public safety."

On Friday, March 14, 2025, President Trump signed a proclamation invoking the Alien Enemies Act to deport members of the Venezuelan gang Tren de Aragua.

On Saturday, March 15, 2025 - this is the timeline of actions that followed in ET:

- 2:00 AM: ACLU and Democracy Forward filed a lawsuit on behalf of five Venezuelans.
- 9:40 AM: Judge James E. Boasberg issued a temporary restraining order halting deportations.
- 3:51 PM: The White House announced Trump's invocation of the Alien Enemies Act.
- 5:25 PM: First deportation flight (G66143) departed from Harlingen, Texas.
- 6:47 PM: At an emergency hearing on the Alien Enemies Act, Boasberg demanded that the planes turn around.
- 7:37 PM: First deportation flight arrived in Honduras.
- 8:10 PM: Second deportation flight (G66145) arrived in Honduras.

- 11:39 PM: First deportation flight departed Honduras for El Salvador.
- 11:43 PM: Second deportation flight departed Honduras for El Salvador.

Sunday, March 16, 2025

- 12:10 AM: First deportation flight landed in El Salvador.
- 12:18 AM: Second deportation flight landed in El Salvador.
- 7:46 AM: El Salvador's President Nayib Bukele tweeted about the arrivals.
- 8:13 AM: Bukele announced that the U.S. paid El Salvador to detain 238 alleged gang members.
- 9:15 AM: White House Press Secretary announced the removal of nearly 300 "T De Aragua terrorists" to El Salvador.

During an emergency hearing, Boasberg blocked the use of the Alien Enemies Act to deport non-citizens in custody, and when he was informed the planes were already airborne, he verbally ordered them returned to the U.S. at 6:46 p.m., saying, "Any plane containing these folks... needs to be returned to the United States... Make sure it's complied with immediately." The fake news made it sound like Boasberg did this long before Trump's executive order took effect. More lies.

NEW YORK POST

LOG IN

US News

Metro

Long Island

Politics

World News

POLITICS

Fed judge orders deportation flights carrying alleged Venezuelan gangbangers to return to US, blocks Trump from invoking Alien Enemies Act

By Anna Young

Published March 15, 2025, 8:07 p.m. ET

2.7K

On March 16, the President of El Salvador posted a message and a video on Twitter (X.) You should watch this video if you haven't seen it yet.

<https://x.com/nayibbukele/status/1901245427216978290>

BUKELE: "Today, the first 238 members of the Venezuelan criminal organization, Tren de Aragua, arrived in our country. They were immediately transferred to CEC the Terrorism Confinement Center, for a period of one year (renewable).

As always, we continue advancing in the fight against organized crime. But this time we are also helping our allies, making our prison system self-sustainable, and obtaining vital intelligence to make our country an even safer place. All in a single action. May God bless El Salvador, and may God bless the United States.”

On March 17, after the planes had landed and during a follow-up hearing, Boasberg accused DOJ lawyers of ignoring his order, rejecting their claim that verbal directives weren't binding or that planes over international waters were beyond his jurisdiction. He called their arguments a “heck of a stretch” and extended the TRO for 14 days to litigate the law's legality.

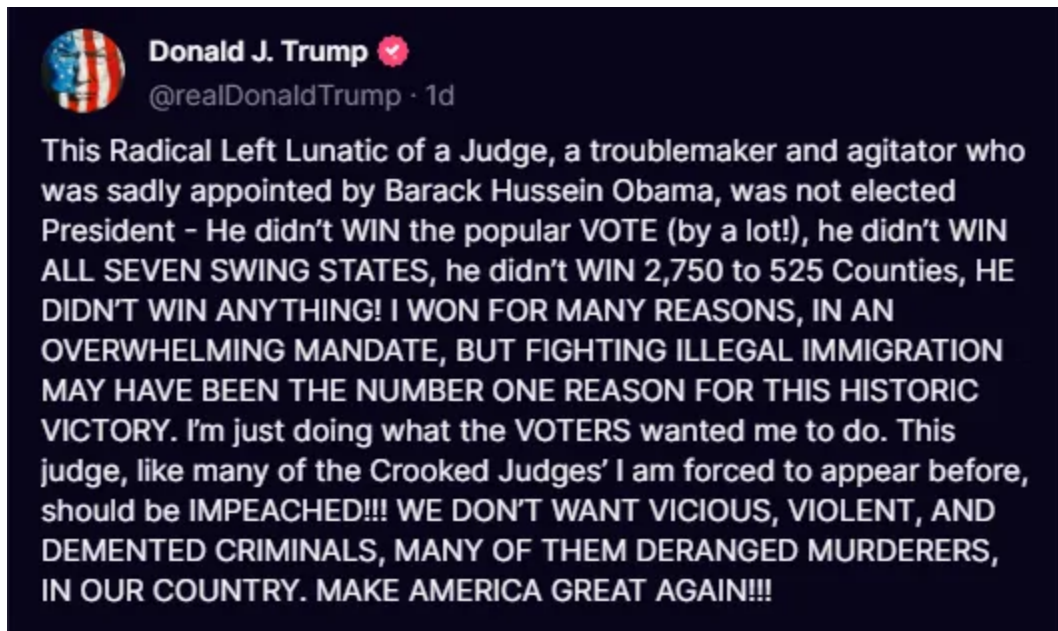

Here's how President Trump responded to Boasberg's actions:

PRESIDENT TRUMP: "This Radical Left Lunatic of a Judge, a troublemaker and agitator who was sadly appointed by Barack Hussein Obama, was not elected President - He didn't WIN the popular VOTE (by a lot!), he didn't WIN ALL SEVEN SWING STATES, he didn't WIN 2,750 to 525 Counties, HE DIDN'T WIN ANYTHING!

I WON FOR MANY REASONS, IN AN OVERWHELMING MANDATE, BUT FIGHTING ILLEGAL IMMIGRATION MAY HAVE BEEN THE NUMBER ONE REASON FOR THIS HISTORIC VICTORY. I'm just doing what the VOTERS want me to do. This judge, like many of the Crooked Judges' I am forced to appear before should be IMPEACHED!!!

WE DON'T WANT VICIOUS, VIOLENT, AND DEMENTED CRIMINALS, MANY OF THEM DERANGED MURDERERS, IN OUR COUNTRY. MAKE AMERICA GREAT AGAIN!!!"

Strangely, right after that, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, John Roberts, responded to Trump's actions issuing a rare public statement to defend Judge Boasberg:

“For more than two centuries, it has been established that impeachment is not an appropriate response to disagreement concerning a judicial decision. The normal appellate review process exists for that purpose.”

Attorney General Pam Bondi blasted Boasberg's ruling as baseless, insisting the flights were lawful. Rep. Brandon Gill (R-TX) filed impeachment articles against Boasberg March 18, joined by five GOP co-sponsors, calling him an “activist judge” guilty of “high crimes.” Elon Musk, Tom Fitton & Marco Rubio all defended Trump.

BONDI: "The underlying premise of these orders, is that the Judicial Branch is superior to the Executive Branch, particularly on non-legal matters involving foreign affairs and national security. The Government disagrees."

"The two branches are coequal, and the Court's continued intrusions into the prerogatives of the Executive Branch should end."

Newt Gingrich, Alan Dershowitz and others weighed in with their remedies for Trump:

Newt Gingrich ✓
@newtgingrich

Follow

If Chief Justice Roberts wants to minimize attacks on out of control appointed leftwing district court judges abusing their role and claiming to be able to overrule the elected President of the United States on management details that are clearly within his role as defined by the Constitution and the Federalist Papers then he should intervene and overrule these absurd power grabs. The Chief Justice can defend the Court by overruling bad judges before the Executive and Legislative Branches start acting against them. The burden is on the Chief Justice not the President.

11:34 AM · 18 Mar 25 · 1M Views

Newt Gingrich ✓
@newtgingrich

Follow

Those upset by the emerging dictatorship of district court justices behaving as though they were president should read the Judiciary Act of 1802. Jefferson and his party completely revised the court system and abolished a series of federalist judges they deemed illegitimate. A warning to the current out of control judiciary.

6:32 AM · 16 Mar 25 · 1.7M Views

In 1801, President John Adams, just before leaving office, appointed a series of federal judges known as "Midnight Judges" to secure Federalist influence in the judiciary as Thomas Jefferson's Democratic-Republicans took power. The Judiciary Act of 1801 expanded the courts, allowing Adams to pack them with loyalists, but Jefferson's administration later repealed the act and abolished many of those judgeships, effectively removing the appointees. Applying this to today, rogue federal judges perceived as obstructing President Trump's agenda could face similar pushback. Congress, if aligned with Trump, might defund certain courts or restructure judicial positions through legislation, reducing their authority or eliminating seats altogether. Alternatively, impeachment remains an option for removing individual judges, though it's a high bar requiring significant political will and evidence of misconduct.

The Midnight Judges of 1801. Adams appointed last minute Federalist judges who impeded Jefferson's plans and rather than have them impeached, he removed the entire circuit. Something like that could work.

Scott Simm...
@RSSimmons1...

Follow

Replying to @mattgaetz

This leftist judicial drama is absolutely unnecessary, and 100% manageable.

Congress can repeal the Judiciary Act of 1789—or any of its successors—because it’s a statute, not a constitutional provision.

The Congress has the authority to reshape the judicial branch, clean it up, make it less politically compromised.

Through rescission, Congress can also defund absolutely anything it chooses.

HAWLEY: "These are district courts, local federal courts, that are saying, 'I'm not going to issue an order that says what the executive branch can or cannot do in my district, I'm going to issue an order that binds the executive branch for the entire nation.'"

"That is not a power that I think district courts have... what needs to happen is one two things: Either the Supreme Court needs to intervene and make clear there's only one court that can issue rules for the whole country, that's the Supreme Court, that's why we only have one of them. And or, if they won't do that, Congress needs to legislate and make clear that district courts do not have the ability to issue these kinds of injunctions."

↑ You reposted

 Law of Self Defense ✓
@LawSelfDefense

Subscribe

I don't know why nobody is listening to me on this, but I'll say it again
LOUDER:

Impeachment is too high a bar, you NEED 67 Senators, and you don't HAVE 67 Senators.

But federal judges can also be removed from the bench for failing to "serve during good Behavior," an Article III Section 1 condition of employment under the Constitution.

Most of these activists judges are violating their own Judicial Branch Code of Conduct for United States Judges in various ways, and are therefore violating the Constitution's "serve during good Behavior" clause, and can be fired for cause.

That's a SIMPLE MAJORITY in the House and Senate--and you DO have THAT.

8:35 PM · Feb 25, 2025 · 110.8K Views

There are obviously lots of ways to stop rogue judges from overstepping but will SCOTUS and Congress take action? That remains to be seen. I'm not a Constitutional lawyer so I don't know the answer - but I'm sure somebody does!

TRUMP: "If a President doesn't have the right to throw murderers, and other criminals, out of our Country because a Radical Left Lunatic Judge wants to assume the role of President, then our Country is in very big trouble, and destined to fail!"

Donald J. Trump ✓

@realDonaldTrump

Judge James Boasberg is doing everything in his power to usurp the Power of the Presidency. He is a local, unknown Judge, a Grandstander, looking for publicity, and it cannot be for any other reason, because his "Rulings" are so ridiculous, and inept. SAVE AMERICA!

Federal Judge Appoints Himself President

POLITICS · Mar 14, 2025 · BabylonBee.com

Why would SCOTUS Justice John Roberts defend Boasberg?

Judge Boasberg sat on the FISA Court from 2014 to 2021. Roberts appointed Boesberg to FISC. The FISA court illegally spied on Trump and his campaign.

Presiding Judge of the United States Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court

In office

January 1, 2020 – May 19, 2021

Preceded by Rosemary M. Collyer

Succeeded by Rudolph Contreras

Judge of the United States Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court

In office

May 18, 2014 – May 19, 2021

Preceded by Reggie Walton

Succeeded by Amit Mehta

Chief Judge Boasberg also served a seven-year term on the United States Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court beginning in May 2014. Appointed by Chief Justice John Roberts, he was the Court's Presiding Judge from January 2020 to May 2021. He is currently the President of the Edward Bennett Williams Inn of Court and a member of the Yale University Council. He is also the past Chair of the Governing Board of St. Albans School.

SUNDANCE: “SCOTUS Justice Roberts will protect Boasberg, because Boasberg - who Roberts appointed to be presiding judge of the FISC - has major leverage over Roberts.

Boasberg appointed Mary McCord as amicus (adviser) to the FISC. There is a strong probability that McCord is active CIA.”

SUNDANCE: “McCord's husband, Sheldon Snook, was the key staff of Roberts and almost certainly the leaker of the Dobbs decision. Chief Justice Roberts had to hide that reality (which he did after the US Marshal investigation) because it put the leak inside his office. Boasberg knows this (and other stuff) and Roberts reacts to eyes on Boasberg from a defensive posture.

Mary McCord was acting head of the DOJ-NSD when she submitted the fraudulent FISA application. After Trump won the election, Roberts appointed Boasberg as presiding judge to run cover. Boasberg then appointed McCord to be amicus to the FISA court as a filter against the potential revelations from Inspector General Mick Horowitz who was granted oversight by Trump and reviewing the FISA application Boasberg was not duped. He was in on it! Boasberg and Bill Barr both had/have the same role, to protect their respective institutions from the actions by those institutions. AG Barr to protect the DOJ, Presiding Boasberg to protect the FISC.”

Paul Sperry
@paulsperry_

Chief Justice John Roberts doesn't like Trump demanding the removal of DC Judge Boasberg from the bench b/c it was Roberts who made the (ill-advised) decision to appoint Boasberg to a 7-year term on the corrupt FISA Court that rubber-stamped Comey & McCabe's FISAs to spy on Trump

10:15 AM · 3/20/25 · 290K Views

Chief Justice Roberts will protect Judge Boasberg

Some bullet points from @TheLastRefuge2, aka The Conservative Treehouse

- Justice Roberts appointed Judge Boasberg to be presiding judge of the FISC.
- Boasberg has a long and well documented history of protecting the interests of the DC deep state.
- Boasberg appointed Mary McCord (likely CIA) as amicus to the FISC.
- Mary McCord sits at the epicenter of every scheme against President Trump.
- McCord's husband, Sheldon Snook, was the key staff of Roberts who leaked the Dobbs decision that no one was ever held accountable for.
- Roberts will protect Boasberg because Boasberg has major leverage over Roberts.

CIA 🖱️

All roads lead to Langley, including McCord, Boasberg, Roberts, Strzok, Warner et al.

All roads lead to Langley.

To give you an idea of the scope of influence of Mary McCord as a key functional consider what we can document.

- ◆ McCord submitted the fraudulent FISA application to spy on Trump campaign
- ◆ McCord created the "Logan Act" claim used against Michael Flynn and then went with Sally Yates to confront the White House.
- ◆ McCord then left the DOJ and went to work for Adam Schiff and Jerry Nadler on Impeachment Committee.
- ◆ McCord organized the CIA rule changes with Intelligence Community Inspector General Michael Atkinson.
- ◆ McCord led and organized the impeachment effort, in the background, using the evidence she helped create.
- ◆ McCord joined the FISA Court to protect against DOJ IG Michael Horowitz newly gained NSD oversight and FISA review.
- ◆ McCord joined the J6 Committee helping to create all the lawfare angles they deployed.
- ◆ McCord then coordinated with DA Fani Willis in Georgia.
- ◆ McCord was working with Special Counsel Jack Smith to prosecute Trump.
- ◆ McCord is now coordinating a Lawfare attack process against Donald Trump in term #2
- ◆ McCord just testified that AG Pam Bondi must recuse herself from investigating McCord.
- ◆ Joe Biden just pardoned Mary McCord.

Mary McCord

- Submitted the fraudulent FISA application to spy on Trump campaign.
- Created the Logan Act claim used against Michael Flynn and then went with Sally Yates to confront the White House.
- Left the DOJ and went to work for Adam Schiff and Jerry Nadler on Impeachment Committee.
- Organized the CIA rule changes with Intelligence Community Inspector General Michael Atkinson.
- Led and organized the impeachment effort, in the background, using the evidence she helped create.
- Joined the FISA Court to protect against DOJ IG Michael Horowitz newly gained NSD oversight and FISA review.
- Joined the J6 Committee helping to create all the lawfare angles they deployed.
- Was working in the background with Special Counsel Jack Smith to prosecute Trump.
- Coordinated with DA Fani Willis in Georgia.
- Appears to have been presumptively pardoned Joe Biden.
- Is on the record advocating for new coordinated Lawfare attacks against Donald Trump in term #2.
- Testified against AG nominee Pam Bondi, saying Bondi must recuse herself from investigating McCord and her efforts on the J6 committee.
- Married to Sheldon Snook (likely leaker of Dobbs decision) who worked at the top of the SCOTUS structure in the office of Chief Justice Roberts.

In addition, don't forget that Laura Ingraham & Mary McCord are old friends. What their connection? CIA? Who knows but that's why I trust no reporter and no talkin head.

Sean Davis ✓
@seanmdav

Subscribe

John Roberts personally placed James Boasberg on the FISA court that rubber-stamped illegal spy warrants against Donald Trump.

In case you're wondering why he's setting his own credibility on fire to defend Boasberg from impeachment investigations.

BTW - this is what Ingraham was trying to get Trump to do.

Margot Cleveland

@ProfMJCleveland

From a friend: "It's hard to tell whether the principal purpose of Lawfare 2.0 is (1) to stop Trump from doing stuff or (2) to goad him into saying he won't follow court orders (so that they can say he's a dictator, and potentially turn the Congress and the Supreme Court against him; so far, Congress has been helpful by the narrowest of margins and the Supreme Court has been slow but not hostile). Conservatives need to realize that Trump is playing it smart by avoiding direct confrontation. By the end of the year, he'll get 90% of what he wants through the budgetary or appellate process."

9:49 AM · 19 Mar 25 · 61.3K Views

So Roberts is compromised and Boasberg is compromised. Loomer AND others say Boasberg is compromised in other ways.

LOOMER: Chief Judge Boasberg blocked the deportation of Tren de Aragua gang member's without disclosing the fact that his daughter works for a 501c3 called "Partners For Justice" that gives criminal illegal aliens and gang members legal advice.

This is why I laugh when people tell me that President Trump should just be able to wave a wand and all will be fixed. There are 700 judges like Boasberg who can pull the crap over and over again and there are lots of enablers like Roberts & McCord & the media pals to help.

As I mentioned earlier, El Salvador's President calls this a JUDICIAL COUP. It happened in his country so he knows what he's talking about.

A judicial coup is when a country's judiciary, typically its highest court, takes action that significantly alter or undermine the democratic process, elected government, or constitutional order, often in a way that's perceived as overstepping its legal authority.

Unlike a military coup, which involves force, a judicial coup uses legal mechanisms to take power and consolidate control and uses judges, who aren't elected, to override the will of the people or their representatives.

Is what happened in El Salvador a judicial coup? No, Bukele impeached and removed corrupt judges that were obstructing his mandate to fix the country.

After Bukele's Nuevas Ideas party won a supermajority in the February 2021 legislative elections, the new Congress, on May 1, 2021, voted to remove all five judges of the Supreme Court's Constitutional Chamber and the Attorney General.

Bukele defended it as "cleaning our house" claiming the judges were corrupt and obstructed his mandate to fix the country.

BUKELE: "That's exactly what judges were doing in El Salvador in 2021. So we impeached them all and then proceeded to fix the country."

Israel also didn't exactly experience a "judicial coup" but it has faced similar dynamics. In 2023, the Netanyahu government pushed judicial reforms to limit the Supreme Court's ability to strike down laws and control judicial appointments, arguing the liberal court's activism undermined elected officials.

Other countries have faced events labeled as judicial coups:

1. Pakistan (2022) - The Supreme Court intervened in a political crisis when Prime Minister Imran Khan dissolved parliament to avoid a no-confidence vote.
2. Romania (2024) - On December 6, 2024, Romania's Constitutional Court annulled the presidential election results, citing irregularities. This sparked outrage across the political spectrum, with many labeling it a judicial coup.
3. Venezuela (2017) - The Supreme Court, packed with Communist loyalists to President Nicolás Maduro, stripped the opposition-led National Assembly of legislative powers, transferring them to itself. Labeled a judicial coup by critics effectively dissolved opposition.
4. Thailand (2008) - The Constitutional Court dissolved the ruling People's Power Party (PPP) over electoral fraud, ousting PM Somchai Wongsawat and banning key politicians. Seen as a judicial coup backed by the military and monarchy, it shifted power.

So this isn't the first time we've seen this scam and it won't be the last. But, I hope Team Trump has a plan to overcome and show the world how it's done. We don't have much time to waste. We can't let the swamp delay and obstruct for another 4 years or we won't have a country left.

PRESIDENT TRUMP: "Unlawful Nationwide Injunctions by Radical Left Judges could very well lead to the destruction of our Country! These people are Lunatics, who do not care, even a little bit, about the repercussions from their very dangerous and incorrect Decisions and Rulings. Lawyers endlessly search the United States for the Judges, and file lawsuits as quickly as they find them. It is then the obligation of Law-abiding Agencies of Government to have these "Orders" overturned. The danger is unparalleled!

These Judges want to assume the Powers of the Presidency, without having to attain 80 Million Votes. They want all of the advantages with none of the risks. Again, a President has to be allowed to act quickly and decisively about such matters as returning murderers, drug lords, rapists, and other such type criminals back to their Homeland, or to other locations that will allow our Country to be SAFE. It is our goal to MAKE AMERICA GREAT AGAIN, and such a high aspiration can never be done if Radical and Highly Partisan Judges are allowed to stand in the way of JUSTICE.

STOP NATIONWIDE INJUNCTIONS NOW, BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE. If Justice Roberts and the United States Supreme Court do not fix this toxic and unprecedented situation IMMEDIATELY, our Country is in very serious trouble!"

Miranda Devine

mdevine@nypost.com

If you ever doubted that Washington's corrupt cartel of Democrat law firms, judges, NGOs, and deep state bureaucrats is a machine designed to thwart the Trump administration, just watch as judge after judge blocks the president's ability to keep his campaign promises.

It may not be brown paper bags changing hands, but this lawfare that defies the people's will is every bit as corrupt.

It will be up to the Supreme Court to define the limits of presidential authority, but Chief Justice John Roberts' preemptive scolding of Trump for musing about judicial impeachment doesn't bode well for the president.

Trump won a thumping mandate in the November election, winning every swing state, the popular vote and both houses of Congress. Democrats are rudderless, fighting each other and incapable of mounting an effective opposition.

So they are depending on the federal courts to be the "Last Bulwark Against Trump" as The New York Times puts it, celebrating the fact that almost 600 federal judges in courtrooms from Rhode Island to Seattle can issue emergency rulings to "stop the White House in its tracks."

Politico has dubbed it the "court case presidency," noting approvingly that "the courts have provided the only real opposition to Trump 2.0 so far."

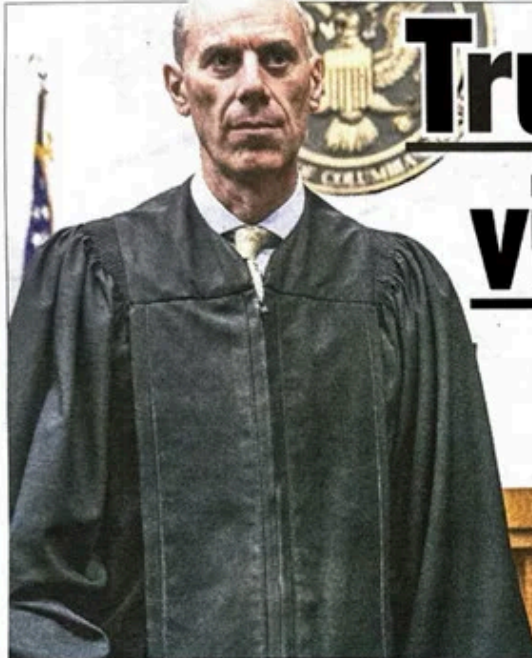

And so they have. According to Attorney General Pam Bondi, judges issued more than 14 injunctions against Trump's administration actions in February alone, with 160 "resistance" lawsuits winding their way through the system.

For example, we had Judge James Boasberg, an Obama appointee, blocking the deportation of illegal alien criminals deemed a national security threat.

Judge Theodore Chuang, an Obama appointee, blocked DOGE's dismantling of USAID, which turned out to be a slush fund for shady Democrat projects rather than a foreign aid agency, and ordered a stop to the freeze on $2 billion being sent out of the country.

Judge Ana Reyes — a Biden appointee — blocked Trump's executive order banning transgender individuals from military service.

White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt weighed in at her press conference Wednesday, pointing out that "67% of all of the injunctions in this century have come against ... President Donald Trump ... and 92% of those have been from Democrat-appointed judges. This is a clear concerted effort by leftists who don't like this president and who are trying to oppose or slow down his agenda."

Trump fights vile judicial push to kill MAGA

The judge who has most angered Trump is Boasberg (pictured), chief judge of the notoriously left-leaning Washington, DC, District Court who convened an emergency hearing Saturday to block the deportation of 251 dangerous illegal alien criminals, going so far as ordering the planes be turned around midair.

Midair disaster attempt

Trump had invoked the Alien Enemies Act of 1798 Saturday to deport two planeloads of the Venezuelan gang Tren de Aragua, which he declared are "perpetrating, attempting, and threatening an invasion or predatory incursion ... and conducting irregular warfare against the territory of the United States ... at the direction, clandestine or otherwise, of the Maduro regime in Venezuela."

The planes landed in El Salvador, which is being paid $6 million to detain the deportees for a year, as part of the Trump administration's crackdown on Joe Biden's disastrous illegal migration project.

"One unelected federal judge trying to control foreign policy," railed Attorney General Bondi

Wednesday. "There are 251 reasons why Americans are safer now because those people are out of this country."

But Boasberg has stepped up his pressure, demanding DOJ lawyers provide minute details of the flights — potentially to hold members of the administration in contempt and serve as the basis for a future impeachment of Trump.

Trump lambasted Boasberg Tuesday as a "radical left lunatic, a troublemaker and agitator," and called for his impeachment. Some Republican members of the House are moving to impeach the judge for what they say was a "lawless" order that endangered national security.

"The judge in this case put the lives of every single person on those aircraft at risk," White House deputy chief of staff Stephen Miller told CNN.

"Did he know how much fuel was in those planes? Did he know the flight conditions? Did he know the weather conditions? Did he know how many crew hours? Did he know the need for crew rest? Did he know any of that? No. This judge violated the law. He violated the Constitution ...

"These same district court judges didn't do a damn thing to stop Joe Biden from flooding this nation with millions of illegal aliens, didn't issue any injunctions to save the lives of Jocelyn Nungaray or Laken Riley ... How are you going to expel illegal alien invaders from our country who are raping, murdering little girls if each and every deportation has to be adjudicated by a district court judge?"

Back with a vengeance

The same lawfare that haunted Trump's first term and dogged his four years in the wilderness is back with a vengeance.

After the Russia hoax and two impeachments, Trump's enemies used the courts to try to bankrupt him, throw him in prison and take him off the ballot. When all else failed, they tried to assassinate him.

But the lawfare only made him stronger as the American people woke up to the ruse. Now his mug shot has pride of place in a framed New York Post cover in a corridor off the Oval Office.

Haven't Democrats learned their lesson?

"They can't help themselves," says attorney and legal commentator Mike Davis, who founded the Article III Project to push back on lawfare against conservatives. "Dems are like fat kids at the all-you-can-eat buffet."

Davis wants Boasberg impeached and says even if the attempt isn't successful, the process would be worth it to act as a deterrent to other activist judges.

In her press conference Wednesday, Leavitt read off a list of dangerous criminal aliens captured in recent days by ICE agents around the country, who should be next on Trump's deportation list, if only activist judges get out of the way.

In San Francisco, ICE arrested a citizen of Guatemala convicted of sexual battery. In New Orleans they nabbed an Ecuadorian citizen convicted of rape in Long Island, New York, another Mexican was picked up with convictions for assault with a firearm and "rape with a foreign object." Houston ICE arrested a Guatemalan convicted of indecent sexual contact with a child.

"These are heinous criminal alien monsters who the previous administration allowed to flood into this country," said Leavitt.

Yes, and these are the monster that the Democrat lawfare machine is working overtime to keep in the country, in opposition to a president who is doing what he was elected to do.

The Supreme Court needs to rein in the lawfare, or we don't have a country.

GROK: "These nationwide injunctions aren't explicitly authorized by any statute—they've evolved through judicial practice and their use has ballooned under Trump. The Supreme Court could curb this. Until the high court reins them in, there's no strict legal cap on their scope. The Supreme Court hasn't fully settled their limits, though Justices like Gorsuch and Thomas have grumbled they overstep, risking "on judge vetoes" over national policy. The Supreme Court is the only body that can definitively rein them in. Gorsuch in 2018 called them "cosmic" and questioned the legitimacy; Thomas has said they "undermine core principles" of judicial restraint. the Court hasn't banned them outright."

Faith leaders are gathered in the Oval right now to pray for America. Please join th

My work is free and supported by your generous donations. Thank you to all who have donated in the past. I truly appreciate your generosity!

If you like my work, you can fund me by becoming a paid subscriber on Substack, donate by credit card here or you can send me a check to Peggy Tierney, PO Box 24 Spooner, Wisconsin 54801. Or just send me a note or a card through the mail or an email at TierneyRealNewsNetwork@substack.com! I love hearing from you.

← Previous

Next ·

© 2025 Tierney's Real News · Privacy · Terms · Collection notice
Substack is the home for great culture