Judge James Boasberg has officially become the poster boy for lawfare. If there's a left-wing plot to rubber-stamp or a political enemy to take down, his gavel is always ready to swing. The man's a busy bee. From running interference for the Deep State during the Trump years to shielding the Swamp at every turn, Boasberg isn't a judge—he's a glorified rent-a-gavel for the regime. In a recent piece, we gave him a name that fits: the "Antifa Judge."

Revolver:

There are activist judges... and then there's Jeb Boasberg. While other radical judges dabble in partisanship, Boasberg has set the gold standard. He's what every weaponized, DC swamp judge aspires to be: shameless, biased, and proudly unaccountable.

This guy checks all the boxes:

- NeverTrump leadership? ✓
- Judge shopping games? ✓
- Absurd cruelty toward J6 defendants? ✓

Boasberg isn't just on the bench—he's leading the resistance in a long, black robe.

Wouldn't it be just par for the course if we found out USAID was somehow funding Judge Boasberg's activism? At this point, nothing would surprise us. That's how absurd—and corrupt—this whole circus has become.

As it stands now, with his impressive progressive resume, Judge Boasberg is an activist's activist—he's the Antifa of the judiciary.

And it all starts with his availability—Boasberg keeps himself right there on the shelf, ready for any judge-shopping assignment that needs a partisan rubber stamp. Need a biased bench-warmer to weaponize your case? Judge Boasberg is your guy. He’s not just available—he’s eager. Heck, he’ll probably show up on his day off just to help the regime get the ruling it wants.

You can read the entire piece below:

Judge shopping, NeverTrump leader, and J6 cruelty: Jeb Boasberg is the Antifa of the bench...

So it’s no surprise that he’s now bending over backward to protect the very criminals the American people want deported.

Bloodthirsty gangbangers...

Boasberg's most absurd stunt was blocking the removal of violent Tren de Aragua gang members by claiming they don't meet the legal threshold for deportation under existing wartime authority. His excuse was that "TdA" isn't a foreign government, and there's no war. Well, that weak legal argument just collapsed under the weight of some pretty damning new intelligence.

READ MORE: Dan Bongino: These docs have been stonewalled from Americans for 8 years... not anymore...

So, it turns out the Venezuelan regime is actually behind Tren de Aragua. They've trained, armed, and deployed these paramilitary gangbangers across the U.S. to destabilize our cities and destroy the country from the inside out. And this isn't speculation—it's documented intel from decorated CIA veteran Gary Berntsen, backed by real evidence. It exposes just how badly—or deliberately—Boasberg misread the law.

The full breakdown of this new intel is in the thread below, and it's something every American needs to read to grasp just how dangerous and twisted Boasberg's agenda really is.

Bart Marcois:

BREAKING: New intelligence briefing refutes Judge Boasberg's main objection to deporting the criminal aliens of Tren de Aragua.

Biden's CIA officials involved.

I've seen the evidence that TdA is funded and directed by the Venezuelan government. Why does that matter? Read on:

Boasberg said TdA is not a foreign government against whom the United States has declared war. But that is a deliberate misreading of the text of the law. The law is quite simple. Here it is, in its entirety:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That whenever there shall be a declared war between the United States and any foreign nation or government, or any invasion or predatory incursion shall be perpetrated, attempted, or threatened against the territory of the United States, by any foreign nation or government, and the President of the United States shall make public proclamation of the event, all natives, citizens, denizens, or subjects of the hostile nation or government, being males of the age of fourteen years and upwards, who shall be within the United States, and not actually naturalized, shall be liable to be apprehended, restrained, secured and removed, as alien enemies.

The law states clearly that the predicates for invoking the Act include “any invasion or predatory incursion attempted ... by any foreign nation or government,” and that “the President shall make public declaration of the event.” Are those conditions met?

The President issued the required declaration, on March 15th. But does the situation meet the other criteria? Is the criminal gang activity of Tren de Aragua “perpetrated, attempted, or threatened by a foreign nation or government?”

An extraordinary article last week by Miami Herald investigative reporter Antonio Maria Delgado provides clear answers. Delgado interviewed a team of high-level investigators and analysts who have been following the Venezuelan regime for over ten years.

The only team member to speak on the record is Gary Berntsen, among the most highly decorated CIA veterans in recent history. I spoke with Berntsen after the article was published. He confirmed that Tren de Aragua was purposely sent to the United States to destabilize our country. Berntsen said, “The Venezuelan regime has assumed operational control of TdA and has trained 300 of them; they have given them paramilitary training, training them to fire weapons, how to conduct sabotage, in a four- to six-week course. Then they deployed them into the United States to 20 separate states.”

“Remember, sabotage includes arson,” he said. “Many of these wildfires, industrial fires, the Los Angeles fires taking advantage of wind and the local conditions, were started by arsonists. How many of them were paid or coerced by TdA or their surrogates?”

Berntsen is coming forward now because two CIA officials leaked false intelligence to the New York Times recently, claiming the Agency has no intelligence connecting TdA with the Venezuelan government. But Berntsen showed me proof of the close relationships among Tren de Aragua, the Venezuelan military and intelligence apparatus, Cuban intelligence, and the worst of the Latin American narcoterrorists. He has shared not only the intelligence, but the sources, with elements of the U.S. government.

“The CIA doesn't have the information because they refused to look at it,” Berntsen said. “We tried to brief them about this three years ago, but they were directed by the Biden Administration to ignore it. And now those officials are trying to undermine President Trump.”

Review the record:

Predatory? Yes.

Incursion? Yes.

Invasion? Yes. A light brigade-sized force of military aged men (2,000).

Perpetrated by a foreign nation or government? Yes. TdA was trained, directed, and funded by the government of Venezuela and its criminal allies.

So, Boasberg’s argument has been crushed into dust. By all logic, the battle should be over. But of course, it won’t be—because this was never about truth or justice. It’s about the Deep State throwing everything it has at President Trump, doing whatever it takes to derail his agenda and protect their grip on power.

These are not mistakes on Boasberg's part. He is directly challenging the executive branches authority to protect the American people from foreign invaders. Judges who willfully violate the Constitution should be removed from the bench immediately.

I don't think this is the case, otherwise we'd have these black robed pesos go silent. That's not happening. Even if the administration does have all the facts, the right thing would be to expose and prosecute. The ds has to be annihilated with extreme prejudice.

Why bother doing that, when by using those files as grounds to issue indictments, you could have them all arrested, prosecuted, and then thrown into prison for good.

I've tried so many ways to make money online, and most of them were disappointing. But this one? It actually works! Last month, I made $18,654, and I'm still amazed at how simple it is. No experience is needed, you work at your own pace, and payments are reliable. If you've ever wanted to earn from home without complicated setups, this is a great way to start!

Claudia Sheinbaum Pardo was born on 24 June 1962 in Mexico City, within a secular Mexican Jewish family.[10][11] She is the second child of chemist Carlos Sheinbaum Yoselevitz and biologist Annie Pardo Cemo.[12][13]

Carlos Sheinbaum was of Ashkenazi Jewish descent. His father, Chone Juan Sheinbaum Abramovitz,[14] had emigrated from Lithuania in 1928, becoming a jewelry merchant and a member of the Mexican Communist Party. Annie Pardo is from a Sephardi Jewish family who arrived in Mexico in 1942

A jewelry merchant? Wow, how rare for them. (People who take their heirloom rings to be refitted or rest, have no idea they get look-a-like glass & gold back. They even make molds from original rings to pour copper, brass or zinc into and gild. They even reproduce inscriptions and point it out "Look! I even cleaned the inscription!"
